IN THE BEE TO-DAY

WEATHER.

The local forecast for to-day is continued cold and fair weather. For Saturday, fair, warmer, probably flurries of snow in the afternoon.

The "low" referred to yesterday is now in the St. Lawrence valley and New England states moving with increasing intensity. Another "low" or storm center of considerable energy is now advancing from the northwest. It is enclosed by the isobar 29.4 inches. It will create southeast winds and warmer weather in Toledo Saturday evening, and if it does not deviate from its present path will produce rain or snowfall Sunday evening. The weather is generally cloudy with snow flurries excepting in the southern states and Montana. The temperature has risen slightly west of the Mississippi and fallen east of it. The zero line extends through North Dakota, Minnesota and eastward to the St. Lawrence valley. The lowest temperature reported was 12 degrees below at Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. The highest was 44 degrees in Montana.

The highest in Toledo yesterday was 31 degrees. The lowest this morning was 9 degrees above. Total snow fall amounted to a trace.

Washington, Feb. 12.—Forecast for Ohio—Some cloudiness, with flurries of snow along the lakes; continued cold; brisk and high northwesterly winds; continued cold and generally fair Sunday.

For Indiana and Illinois—Continued cold; northerly winds and fair to-day; slightly warmer and fair Sunday.

For Michigan and Wisconsin—Continued cold; northwesterly winds; generally fair, except some cloudiness and possibly flurries of snow along the lakes; fair and slightly warmer Sunday.

WAPAKONETA NOTES.

Wapakoneta, O., Feb. 12.—(Special)—Yesterday Louise Amstutz filed suit in the clerk's office praying to be divorced from her husband, August.

The Auglaize County Farmers' Institute society held an interesting and profitable meeting at Unipolis, this county, the last two days, and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: A. P. Rinehart, president; C. C. Pepple, vice president; Frank Riglon, secretary; Frank Bailey, treasurer.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.

Kingston, N. Y., Feb. 12.—Stock & Rice's furniture and undertaking store was burned this morning, and several adjacent buildings damaged. The total loss is about $70,000; insurance about $40,000.

TURN ON THE LIGHT

Why This Secrecy in Bering Sea Affairs?

Mysterious Doings Which Need Watching.

The Seal of Secrecy Put on the Meetings

Against Protests by the English Commissioners.

Administration Organs Busily Engaged in Shifting the Responsibility for the Present State of Affairs at the National Capital.

New York, Feb. 12.—A special to the Herald from Washington says there is something very mysterious going on in what is known as the settlement of the Bering sea question. If the scene of the negotiations were a state capital there would be some very sensational charges made, and for that matter, perhaps even the dignity of some officials' positions may not save them from severe reflections before this matter is over.

There seems to be a very strong desire to prevent the public expression of the findings of the commission. There is no reason for this unless somebody is going to be benefited.

There are also a great many charges made in different organs of the administration that it is the English commissioners who are wasting time and refusing to meet the American commissioners and get down to business.

This is not true. It is not the Englishmen who have held back the investigation or who have asked for secrecy. Some mysterious influence has kept the American and English commissioners apart and it was not until yesterday that they were allowed to meet officially in what was called an "informal conference."

The "conference" was behind closed doors. It was impossible to get the commissioners to talk on the subject, but it is known that they favor open sessions.

The state department will not, however, for some reason agree to this step.

The Englishmen, while not complaining, having been bound to secrecy, feel keenly the misrepresentations of their intentions and dispositions printed in administration papers.

A SAD ACCIDENT.

Celina, O., Feb. 12.—Hugh Wooten, a wealthy farmer living near Ft. Recovery, 15 miles west, saddled a horse this morning and started for a physician for his wife, who had been taken suddenly ill from heart disease, and had only gone a short distance when the horse stumbled and fell to the ground, violently throwing Wooten to the ground, breaking his collar bone, dislocating his right shoulder, breaking five ribs and hurt more or less internally.

On account of his age, which is 70, no hopes are entertained of his recovery. His wife, also aged 70, is lying at death's door.

SULLIVAN TO FIGHT MAHER

The Champion Has Signed Articles.

They Are Conditional, However, Upon Maher First Being Able to Defeat Fitzsimmons.

Chicago, Feb. 12.—A private communication, bearing the signature of John L. Sullivan, received by a personal friend of his in Chicago to-day, states that Sullivan on February 9 attached his name to articles of agreement to fight to a finish with five-ounce gloves, Queensbury rules, with Peter Maher for a purse of $35,000, before the Metropolitan club of New Orleans, and a side bet of $10,000, some time during next August, providing Maher whips Fitzsimmons.

Sullivan does not under-rate the Irish boy in the least, but says he thinks he will do Fitzsimmons up in less than fifteen minutes.

Sullivan's theatrical engagement expires next June, and he will go into training immediately on the expiration thereof at some point near New Orleans.

That the Metropolitan's agents have been exerting every effort to secure the champion's signature to a set of conditional articles, to hold good only in the event that Maher wins against Fitzsimmons, leaked out to-day when the fact became known that the agent had stuck to Sullivan's side all the way from the coast to Ogden and Salt Lake.

THE SUGAR BOUNTY.

The Democrats Will Vote to Take It Away.

Washington, Feb. 12.—The democrats of the west, it appears, are to make a serious attempt to repeal the provisions of the McKinley law providing for the payment of bounties on sugar.

Representative Scott, of Illinois, has introduced a resolution instructing the ways and means committee to report a bill providing for such repeal, and he asserts with confidence that the majority of the democratic members are favorable to such a bill, although conceding that there will be considerable democratic opposition from the cane-sugar districts of the south and possibly from the beet-sugar districts of the west.

LIMA NOTES.

Lima, O., Feb. 12.—G. M. Lewis, a prominent High street grocer, has become insane over business reverses and religious excitement. He is very violent at times and will be taken to the Toledo asylum. Much sympathy is expressed for himself and family.

The grand jury returned the following indictments last evening: Daniel Wilhelm, for maliciously stabbing with intent to wound and kill William France; George Marshall and Harry Morris, burglary and larceny; Orville Williams, burglary and larceny; Solomon S. Folk, unlawfully killing one James McCabe.

WANTS $50,000 DAMAGES.

Akron, O., Feb. 12.—A. W. Carrier, the Twinsburg teacher, who has become quite noted in connection with a factional school fight in that village, to-day through his attorneys, Kohler & Musser, filed a suit for $50,000 damages against Dr. Samuel Findley, of the county board of examiners, and the Akron Printing and Publishing company.

BUFFALO BILL IS BACK.

His Show Reaping a Harvest Abroad.

He Will Remain in England Another Year and Come Back to Take in the World's Fair.

Chicago, Feb. 12.—"W. E. Cody," in a good plain business hand was written on the register of the Leland last night. "Buffalo Bill" came in on the Pennsylvania train, which was delayed for a couple of hours. He was accompanied by Col. John E. Bell, formerly of the secret service. "My show is running in Glasgow," said Col. Cody. "This is the first time it has continued to exhibit during my absence, but Nate Salisbury is in charge there, having just returned from America. We shall play in Great Britain until the fall when the whole troupe will come west and lay off during the winter. We shall open in London April 1 and shall play through the summer there, but we shall be here in time for the world's fair."

After spending a couple of days in Chicago he will go to North Platte, accompanied by Col. Bell, where he will remain for a month and return to England.

Quite a number of old frontiersmen gathered at the Leland last evening to welcome "Buffalo Bill" back to the United States. The show in Great Britain, he told his friends, had been a great success and the financial returns had been heavy.

THURMAN WRITING LETTERS

Allen W. Throws Himself Into the Arena

And Warns the Ohio Democracy That There is Danger in the Hill Movement.

Columbus, O., Feb. 12.—A carefully written letter was published last night over the signature of Allen W. Thurman, son of ex-Senator A. G. Thurman, as to the duty of the Ohio democrats at the present time. While the entire article is conservative in tone and pleads for harmony, it is considered as a notice served from Senator Brice, John R. McLean and others that they must not attempt to raid Ohio in favor of the hero of the mid-winter convention. Reading between the lines there is found a suggestion in favor of ex-Gov. Campbell. Concerning the rights of the majority and the minority there is also found a strong thrust at the February 22 movement as "intolerant and oppressive."

There are expressions and meaning sentences that lead those who are well advised as to his views to believe that the carefully prepared article has passed the close scrutiny of the "Old Roman" himself.

HINTS AT CORRUPTION.

Mississippi Legislature to do Some Investigating.

Claimed on the Floor of the House That Money Was Used to Postpone Action on a Certain Bill.

Jackson, Miss., Feb. 12.—Considerable excitement was caused in the house yesterday by the introduction of a resolution by Representative Grover to the effect, that it having been rumored that money was used with some members of the legislature to get the penitentiary bill postponed for two years, the house appointed a committee to investigate the matter at once if there was any truth in the report.

Several members surrounded Grover in a moment urging him to withdraw the resolution, which he finally did.

It is charged by members that undue influence was used in having the plea for a penitentiary farm postponed for two years, and the object of the resolution was to see how much truth there was in the rumor. It is likely that the resolution will come up again in a day or two, in another shape.

LEFT IT A COMPLETE RUIN.

A Disastrous Conflagration in Illinois.

The Town of Monmouth Damaged to the Extent of One Hundred and Seventy-Five Thousand.

Monmouth, Ill., Feb. 12.—At 11 o'clock last night this city was visited by the second largest fire since 1871, when the whole business part was destroyed.

The fire originated in the opera house and was caused by an explosion of gas a few moments after the house had been vacated by nearly 800 people who had been attending a lecture.

The flames quickly spread and in a short space of time were communicated to eight storerooms underneath—three groceries, a saloon, dry goods, furniture and hardware stores—and within an hour's time the entire block of brick buildings was completely destroyed notwithstanding several streams of water continually in play. The losses aggregate $175,000.

TO CORNER HARD COAL,

And Make it Cost More to the Consumer.

The New Drexel-Morgan Deal Consummated.

Dealers Dependent on the Combine for a Supply of Fuel Are Uncertain as to the Outcome.

New York, Feb. 12.—Messrs. Drexel, Morgan & Co. announce officially that the lease and contracts which were signed have now been ratified by the boads of directors of the Reading, New Jersey, and Lehigh Valley railways, by which was effected the combination of the anthracite coal interests.

Samuel Sloan, president of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, said today to a reporter regarding the combination: "The Lackawanna is thoroughly in sympathy with the combination. While we have made no formal agreement with the Reading we shall act in harmony with that company, and we shall not be a competitive factor in the coal trade. We shall act with the combined interests both in the output and price of coal. The object is not to raise the price, but to regulate production and to make prices uniform."

It is stated that J. Rogers Maxwell and George F. Baker will go into the Lackawanna directory at the next election, and that President Sloan, of the Lackawanna, will in turn go into the New Jersey Central directory.

President Maxwell, of the Jersey Central, authorizes the following statement. "Our people have been buyers of Lackawanna stock for some time past, and now have a large investment holding in the property, which does not appear on the books. This has been known to Mr. Sloan for some time. The stock has been bought with the intention of working in harmony with Mr. Sloan for the general good of the coal trade."

Cornelius Vanderbilt was asked if he would say definitely whether he was in any way interested in the coal roads' combinations according to current reports. Mr. Vanderbilt being engaged at the time, he authorized Mr. Depew, with whom he was in consultation, to say for him that he was not in any way interested in the transaction.

President McLeod, of the Reading company, gives some additional details: "In regard to the primary object of the arrangement," he says, "It is is to secure a more economical management in the coal trade by avoiding expensive selling agencies and heavy commissions."

It is acknowledged even by the independent producers that the combination with the Lackawana included will control 75 per cent. of the anthracite coal traffic of Pennsylvania. As one of the main features of the "deal" looks towards the abolishing of selling agents, the action of the independent producers and of the selling agents is the subject of some comment. It is acknowledged that if the movement succeeds, the selling agents will find their occupations gone.

Frederick A. Potts, who handles much coal from other fields than those represented in the "deal," said to-day: "It is impossible at this time to judge of the workings and effects of the movement. Coal is a bulky commodity and must be distributed. There are several roads bringing coal to this city, for instance, that are not mentioned as being in the combination. Among these are the Erie, the New York, Susquehanna & Western, the Pennsylvania, and the Lehigh Coal & Navigation company. Of course we can get coal from these sources, some of which are merely carriers. Just how our interests will be affected remains to be seen. Of course it may be a more serious matter for those selling agents who have depended on the roads in the combination for their supply."

SHE HAD A CLOSE CALL.

Mrs. Wilson Came Near Being Buried Alive.

The Man Who Went After the Coffin Got Drunk and Gave Her Time to Come Out of the Trance.

Warsaw, Ill., Feb. 12.—Mrs. S. Wilson, living 12 miles from this city, became suddenly ill last Saturday and to all appearances died.

She was dressed for burial and arrangements for her funeral made. No physician was called.

On Monday a neighbor was sent to Warsaw for a coffin, but got drunk and did not reach home until Tuesday morning. When the watchers began to place the supposed corpse in the coffin the woman threw up her arms and caught one of the attendants by both wrists. With difficulty her fingers were released.

By the aid of a mirror respiration was detected, restoratives were applied and in a few hours Mrs. Wilson was able to talk.

She is too weak to say much about her experience while in the trance. She says she knew preparations were being made for her burial, and it was by an almost superhuman effort that she threw up her arms and clutched the wrists of the attendant. She will recover.

THEY FAVOR M'KINLEY.

The Pacific Coast is for an Ohio Man.

The Strong Anti-Harrison Sentiment is Seen in Every Political Move Made.

New York, Feb. 12.—A special to the Recorder from San Francisco says:

Since the withdrawal of Secretary Blaine as a presidential candidate Gov. McKinley has leaped into favor on the Pacific coast. Ex-Gov. John Mansfield, a stalwart republican, said yesterday:

"Some time ago I suggested McKinley as the republican candidate for president in 1892. Since McKinley championed republican ideas in his successful campaign in Ohio he is to-day the ablest and best exponent of his party and its policy now before the country and with him as the republican candidate and Mr. Hill as the democratic candidate the people could not be mistaken in the issues of the coming campaign.

"I therefore nominate William McKinley, of Ohio, as the republican candidate for the presidency in 1892 and predict his triumphant election."

WORLD'S SUPPLY OF WHEAT.

Chicago, Feb. 12.—The Daily Trade Bulletin publishes a statement of the world's available supply of wheat and flour in second hands, the flour being reduced to wheat in bushels. The supply of Europe in store and afloat on February 1 was 107,500,000 bushels, against 105,250,000 bushels on January 1, and 112,000,000 bushels on December 1, last. In the United States and Canada the supply on February 1 was 89,857,000 bushels, against 95,548,000 bushels on January 1 and 91,343,000 bushels on December 1, last.

FOUND FEARFULLY MANGLED.

Brooklyn Man Wedged in the Track of the Elevated Road.

New York, Feb. 12.—An engineer on the Union elevated road in Brooklyn, on his way from his train to Fulton ferry, at midnight last night, saw the body of a man stuck feet downward, between the ties on the up-town track where the elevated road shunts out from under the Brooklyn bridge.

The man was pulled out from between the ties and laid on the foot path between the tracks. He was still alive, though fearfully mangled. His right arm and both legs were broken and his face mashed.

He was able to tell his name and address, describing himself as Christian Lankhuf, a grocer at 50 Hamburg avenue, Brooklyn. In answer to a question as to how he got on the track, he said only: "The bridge, the bridge."

From this it was assumed that he had climbed over the stone coping of the roadway of the bridge and jumped off.

The police, however, are of opinion that he fell from a train. The man was sent to a hospital.

EVIDENCE OF A CRIME.

Two Dead Bodies Suggest a Horrible Tale.

Believed to Have Been Killed by Indians and Robbed Even of Their Clothes.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 12.—Francisco Mariano arrived here last night from Anthony, N. M., with a herd of stock and reports that at the ruins of the powder mills eight miles above this city on the Rio Grande he saw two Americans, lying dead inside one of the doors, one naked and the other having on a suit of underclothing. A large pool of blood was inside the door.

Residents along the river report seeing two Americans going towards the ruins yesterday. The powder mill, before its destruction, belonged to a well-organized gang of train robbers under the leadership of Doc Smart.

It is believed the dead men were members of the gang who returned to the old scenes and were murdered and robbed. The fact that the bodies were stripped supports the theory that the men were killed by Indians.

BANKER BEHIND THE BARS,

Charged with Stealing the Institution's Funds.

He Took the Money and Bet it on the Wrong Side of the Wheat Market.

Moorhead, Minn., Feb. 12.—Henry A. Bruns, president of the Merchants' bank, is under arrest charged with defrauding depositors of his bank out of over $80,000.

The complaint against him was made by George Engedahl, bookkeeper for the bank for the past eight years.

Thomas C. Kurtz, cashier of the bank and half owner of it, is not implicated in the swindle.

It is charged that Bruns in the past four months has been drawing funds from the bank and losing it buying wheat on the wrong side of the market.

The amount of money in the bank is about $100,000, whereas there should be over $200,000 according to the bank books. The trial will come up before Judge Mills to-morrow.

OCEAN MARINE.

New York, Feb. 12.—Arrived: Cufic, from Liverpool; Slavonia, from Hamburg.

New York, Feb. 12.—The Hamburg-American Packet company's steamer Slavonia, from Hamburg for Baltimore, put into this port to-day for repairs. Her propeller and engines were damaged during heavy gales.

London, Feb. 12.—The steamer Tower Hill, from this port for New York, has returned, having lost her port propeller.

CONDUCTOR KILLED.

Ayer Junction, Mass., Feb. 12.—The body of Conductor George W. Conners, of the Fitchburg freight train, which went through a bridge near here yesterday morning, was found last night among the debris of the wreck in the river.

SOC ET TU 'EM.

Simpson Wades Into the Two Parties.

His Speech on the Floor of the House Attracts Attention and Applause.

Washington, Feb. 12.—Mr. Butler, of Iowa, said yesterday that the house was to determine whether its legislation was to be based on sentiment or reason—whether its action should be based on the judgment of men or on the sentiment of people who did not know the difference between wind and patriotism.

It was at this juncture that the farmers' alliance leader from Kansas arraigned the dominant parties.

Alluding to the times at this session when resolutions for additional employes had been passed, he charged the leading parties with log-rolling on these occasions and dividing the additional positions equally between the democrats and republicans.

"It appears," said Mr. Simpson, "that legislation is lost sight of in this attempt to inaugurate a new system of reciprocity. (Laughter). The democratic and republican parties have adopted a new reciprocity in this house in voting each other additional employes.

"Why, Mr. Speaker, I have a constituent of my own here from the state of Kansas, who has done more for this country in regard to valuable services rendered in the war of the rebellion than any man recommended to a position in this congress. (Laughter).

"He actually saved the army of General Pope from destruction in 1862, and saved the city of Washington from capture by the rebel army. (Great laughter).

"He was a man in the employ of the secret service and went through the lines into Richmond, entered the rebel army, becoming a spy, and got information that would save the army of Pope.

"As soon as he obtained the intelligence he deserted, came through the rebel lines, swam the river, got across safely and informed Gen. Pope of the danger which menaced him, and he has evidence to show for it bearing the signatures of Generals Pope and Siegel on it. (Applause).

"Notwithstanding this fact, Mr. Speaker, I have been unable to obtain even a messenger's position for that man, simply because he does not belong to the party in power; simply because he is neither democrat nor republican. (Laughter and applause).

"Yet the great congress of the United States has been consuming time two or three days together in making positions for some men because of the fact that members on one side or the other want to get their friends in office. (Applause).

"So you have gone on until the whole city of Washington is besieged by a hungry horde of political partisans who are anxious to reach down into the pockets of the taxpayers and take their money to pay political followers and friends for political services." (Great applause and laughter).

Mr. Simpson's speech was interrupted by frequent cries of "Put him on the roll," "Amend the resolution," and "He saved the union."

OVER DEAD MEN'S GRAVES

General Alger's Military Record Assailed.

A Sensation Created in Grand Army Circles.

The Detroit General Persists That He Fought Nobly and Was Not Recommended for Dismissal.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 12.—Gen. Russell A. Alger yesterday wired a long letter to Col. George H. Hopkins, of Washington, in reply to the sensational charges made by the New York Sun that he (Alger) had been recommended for dismissal twenty-eight years ago by Gen. Merritt.

Gen. Alger claims that he was honorably discharged and not dismissed. After being the last man to cross the ford at Shepherdstown, W. Va., on the Potomac, in August, 1864, he was taken ill and sent to the hospital at Annapolis. He was so reduced by his sickness that he was compelled to resign.

"I had never heard a single word of Gen. Custer's (not Merritt's) recommendation until during the Chicago convention in 1888, when my friends telegraphed me there was some question about my military record. I telegraphed back that it was absolutely false."

Gen. Alger then briefly reviews his career in the war and says that if he had known of the existence of such a document during the lives of Generals Sheridan and Custer he could have had the record corrected. Gen. Alger then says that in 1864 he refused to recommend a brother of Gen. Custer to a position as lieutenant in his regiment and at that time Custer told him he would regret it some day. On August 16 Alger says he made a brave capture at Front Royal, but Custer gave the credit to another officer. Gen. Alger continues:

"I never knew or suspected that there was the slightest question about me being properly sent with the large number of sick and wounded men to Annapolis, and as I said, Gen Custer's recommendation, if he knew the facts, was one of the most cruel outrages ever perpetrated upon a soldier. I dislike very much to say anything against a dead soldier, but these are facts."

Dr. S. R. Wooster, who was Gen. Custer's brigade surgeon at the time when Gen. Alger was sent to the hospital and who sent him there, arrived in town last night.

On learning of the charges made against Gen. Alger, and on reading Gen. Alger's reply he wrote a certified statement, in which he confirmed every assertion the general had made.

FREMONT IS SATISFIED.

Fremont, O., Feb. 12.—The passage of the enabling act by the senate gives unanimous satisfaction to our citizens, as was shown by four-fifths of our voters signing the petition. It means the retention here of a large manufacturing concern and employment for several hundred men.

ARE THEY USING THE TORCH

Sensational Reports From Toronto, Ohio.

The Dew-Drop-Inn Saloon Burned—A White Cap Threat to Destroy Made Good.

Steubenville, O., Feb. 12.—The temperance people of Toronto, O., seven miles above this city, are adopting a torch as a means of exterminating the saloon.

For some time past the Dew-Drop-Inn saloon, conducted by S. M. Robertson, has been an eyesore to the I. O. S. T. people of that city.

All legal means have been resorted to in trying to drive Robertson out of the town, but without avail. On January 27 Wm. Carson, owner of the property on which the saloon is located, received the following notice in a letter written by a feminine hand:

"Mr. Carson: Dear Sir—If you value that building and property of yours worth anything, or want, you had better put Robertson out, for threats are made and will be carried out, the house will be burnt down if he stays in it. Now take warning. White Caps."

No attention was paid to the notice, but Tuesday night the saloon was gutted by fire of incendiary origin. An investigation is going on to find out who sent the White Cap warning.

ON A STRIKE.

New York, Feb. 12.—Meyer Jonas' sons & Co.'s cloak makers, numbering nearly 1,000 men and women, went out on strike yesterday. The trouble is said to be due to a difference which has arisen between the employers and the employed regarding wages.

LEAF TOBACCO MEN.

They Want Some Changes in the Laws.

Largely Signed Petitions on the Subject Presented by Congressman Chipman.

Washington, Feb. 12.—Representative Chipman presented in the house two extended petitions from Detroit tobacco manufacturers and other business men in favor of a change in the law relative to leaf tobacco.

The petitions, which were referred to the committee on ways and means, were signed by B. F. Haxton, C. B. Eldredge, Wm. M. Waldron, C. T. Gilbert, E. J. W. Cuyler, American Eagle Tobacco company, John J. Bagley & Co., J. B. Hutchins, Jas. O'Donnell, Phelps, Brace & Co., W. J. Gould & Co., and others.

The petitioners favor legislation providing that leaf tobacco dealers shall keep such books containing an accurate account of all the tobacco bought and sold as the commissioner of internal revenue shall prescribe, and on demand of any internal revenue officer or other authorized agents of the treasury department to furnish said officer or agent a true and complete statement, verified by oath, of all sales of leaf tobacco, the number of hogsheads, cases and pounds, with the name and residence in each instance of the person to whom sold, and the place to which it was shipped.

And every dealer in leaf tobacco or retail dealer in leaf tobacco who refuses to furnish such information or who makes any false statements as to sales of leaf tobacco or who shall sell any leaf tobacco to anyone except to a registered dealer in leaf tobacco, a registered manufacturer of tobacco, or to a registered manufacturer of cigars, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be liable to a penalty of twenty cents per pound upon every pound so sold, and to imprisonment for at least six months, but not over two years.

SOME DOUBLE-HEADERS,

Giving a Synopsis of Happenings in Toledo and Vicinity.

Dr. Lungren Reported Worse To-Day.

Happenings in Local Labor Circles—Alleged Counterfeiters Nabbed By Uncle Sam—Things Here and There.

DR. LUNGREN.

His Condition Reported To Be Considerably Worse.

Attorney Charles F. Watts received a telegram from W. H. A. Read in Chicago at 8 o'clock last evening stating that Dr. Lungren's condition was considerably worse.

THE ANTI-OPTION BILL.

Secretary Smith Will Go to Washington in Opposition to It.

This forenoon Secretary Smith read a paper in opposition to the Washburn option bill. The paper was indorsed by the Produce exchange, and Mr. Smith will present the paper to the judiciary committee at Washington next Tuesday.

WHO WANTS A BABY?

The Humane Society Has One at Its Disposal.

The Humane Society received a report yesterday afternoon from Mrs. Clothilde Blanchet, stating that she had at her house a baby boy, four weeks old, that had been deserted by its parents. The society took charge of the infant and will endeavor to find him a home.

DECLARED A DRAW.

Battle Royal Between Two Colored Women.

Two colored women tried conclusions in a hair-pulling match early this morning on the corner of St. Clair and Adams street. A large crowd was collected and considerable interest was manifest in the outcome of the unique contest, which was declared a draw by the parties before the police arrived.

JOAN OF ARC.

A Specially-Called Meeting of This Assembly Saturday Evening.

A special meeting of Joan of Arc assembly, L. A. 10062, is called for Saturday evening of this week. A number of matters of great importance have to be promptly acted upon, and it is hoped all members will see this notice and be in attendance. There will be no other meeting of the assembly this week, and at the Saturday night meeting the time for holding the next open meeting will be fixed.

COUNTERFEITERS

On Trial Before United States Commissioner Hall To-day.

United States Commissioner Hall is this afternoon hearing a case against two young men for passing counterfeit money. Capt. Edward A. Abbott, of the government secret service, brought to the city yesterday Fred Gross and Evoy Leitner, two Fostoria young men, who were caught passing counterfeit dollars in that town.

The coins they had, however, were poor, and nothing like those passed in Toledo a few weeks ago.

TOLEDO BOYS

Have Purchased the Elevator at Perrysburg.

The Perrysburg Journal prints this paragraph in its issue to-day, which will be of interest to Toledoans:

"It is reported that J. C. and Charles Maddy have purchased the lease of the Perrysburg elevator, held by Mr. Churchill, of Toledo, and that the business will hereafter be conducted by them. They have also rented the residence of John A. Robertson on Front street, and expect to occupy it as a home for themselves and their two sisters who are now residing at the old family home in Missouri. If the report be true the people of Perrysburg will be glad of the fact."

A COACH PLATFORM.

Steps and All, Introduced as Evidence in a Damage Suit.

The case of Miss Sarah Flower against the Toledo, St. Louis & Kansas City Railroad company, is still on hearing in common pleas court. It is an action to recover damages for personal injury sustained at Maumee during September of 1889, while alighting from a Clover Leaf passenger train at that station.

The case is being hotly contested, and every inch of ground is being fought with rigid determination. A model of the rear platform of the coach from which Miss Flower fell has been built by the railroad company and introduced in court as evidence in defense. It is a bulky structure, but is considered quite an important factor in the case.

HOW OTHERS SEE US.

Comment of a Findlay Paper on Toledo Gas Matters.

This morning's Findlay Republican has the following reference to current natural gas topics in Toledo, with an opinion on the same:

"At the instance of the city council, the mayor of Toledo has appointed a committee to investigate the condition of the gas plant of that city or any other. The committee consists of business men who know absolutely nothing about a gas plant. One of them has asked the mayor how the committee is to know whether a gas well is a good or poor one. It is our opinion that the gas plant at Toledo wants a little competent management, and a fancy investigation by men who know nothing on the subject will come far short of helping it out of the hole."

EVANGELINE.

An Old-Time Favorite at the People's Next Week.

Now that Evangeline is being billed the curiosity of the public is being made known and all are inquiring if it is the same that played here two or three years ago? It is the same old, dear, beautiful Evangeline, thrice perrenial, always the same, and always good, albeit with occasional cast changes that are always for the better. The vitality of this famous comic opera extravaganza lies in its pure and wholesome test and the sweetness and originality of its music; and added to all this it is resplendent in magnificent costumes, with a grand march of amazons, produced with striking calcium effects, and its numberless other features, all well known. There are 40 people in the company, who arrive here next Sunday, and as they are this week delighting Detroiters they will be assured a royal welcome here.

Checked — the frightful inroads of Scrofula and all blood-taints. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery purifies and enriches the blood, cleanses the system of all impurities, and restores health and strength. It cures all diseases arising from impure blood. Consumption is one of them. It's simply lung-scrofula. In all its earlier stages, the "Discovery" effects a cure. It's easy to see why. The medicine that masters scrofula in one part, is the best remedy for it in another. It is the best. It's warranted. It's the only blood and lung remedy that's guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money will be refunded. No other medicine of its class does it. How many would be left if they did?

It's the cheapest blood-purifier, sold through druggists, (no matter how many doses are offered for a dollar,) because you only pay for the good you get.

That's the kind of medicine to try.

Your money is returned if it doesn't benefit or cure you.

Can you ask more?

PROMINENTLY LOCATED

Is the Property Purchased by L. S. Baumgardner—It Will Be Improved.

The property recently purchased by L. S. Baumgardner, of C. E. Bartley, is located on the corner of Madison and Tenth streets. A Bee this morning inquired of Mr. Baumgardner with regard to any immediate improvement of the property, and he said:

"I expect to improve the property during the coming season. Just what the improvements will consist of I have not yet fully determined. If certain things develop favorably, I will build an apartment house on the site, but there is nothing certain about what I will do, and no plans of any description have been perfected.

IN LABOR CIRCLES.

Meetings Last Night —Working Girl's Union Formed.

The following is the report of Superintendent Murphy of the Free Employment bureau for the week ending last night:

	Males.	Females.	Total
Situations wanted....	58	36	94
Help wanted........	8	43	51
Situations procured...	5	25	30

The Central Labor union's organization committee met last night at their hall and organized the girls employed in several of the factories into the Working Girls' union. Officers were chosen and delegates appointed to the central body. There were 60 members present last night, and the number is expected to be considerably augmented at the next meeting.

Joan of Arc assembly, K. of L., holds a special meeting at their hall to-morrow night.

The regular bi-weekly meeting of the Central Labor union was held last night. New delegates were received as follows: A. L. Reis, Barbers' union; D. Carey, Machine Woodworkers; Albert Ward, Pressmen; John Sweinhart and John Burt, Iron Moulders. The indorsement of the delegates was given to the bakers in their strike, and a committee was selected to aid in the matter. President Booth offered the following, which was adopted:

Whereas, His Honor Mayor Emmick has seen fit to appoint one of our members to a position of honor and trust in the government of our city, that appointment having been made without the solicitation from this body; and

Whereas, At the republican caucus last Monday night the assertion was made that the appointment of Mr. Reynold Voit as gas trustee was not approved by this body; therefore be it

Resolved, That we denounce that statement as wholly false and without foundation; and be it further

Resolved, That in Mr. Voit we are confident the citizens of Toledo will find a just, competent and painstaking official, and one who will always be found at his post of duty when the needs of the city require it; and further be it

Resolved, That in all our intercourse with Mr. Voit we have found him a man of the utmost honesty and integrity and one in whom we have the highest confidence. The many duties and positions of trust reposed in him by the Central Labor union have proved to us without doubt that the city council cannot err in his selection to fill the position to which he has been appointed.

The upholsterers, carriage painters and trimmers are expected soon to be organized by the Central Labor union.

The second regular meeting of the Linemen's union since reorganization was held last night in Walbridge hall. President Denoher was reported sick, and in his absence Vice President Abbott presided. Eight new members were initiated. After discussion it was decided to invite the trimmers to attend the next meeting of the union, and a committee was appointed to wait on the telephone linemen and ask them to join the union. Other important business was transacted.

Open meeting of plasterers in Mulcahey's hall to night. All interested in labor matters invited to attend.

AND STILL THEY COME.

Three New Blocks to Go Up on Monroe Street.

Frank Losee to Build a Flat on the Collingwood Triangle—Two Business Blocks.

The Twenty-second street corners are becoming quite a business center. In addition to the present stores, Mr. Thomas McKinney will erect a fine brick two-story business block on Monroe street, corner of Twenty-second. Work will be commenced at once.

The block will be 80 feet front, and will contain two stores, costing in the neighborhood of $8,000.

Just beyond Mr. McKinney's block Mr. George Evans will erect a store on Monroe street. The plans for both buildings are artistic.

F. B. Losee has plans completed for a splendid brick block on Monroe street, that will cost $15,000 when finished. The building will be erected on the triangular plot at the intersection of Monroe and Oak streets and Collingwood avenue. It will front 94 feet on Monroe street and extend 98 feet on Collingwood avenue to Oak street. The structure will be three stories high. There will be four store rooms on the first floor and three flats each on the other two floors. The store rooms will extend from Monroe to Oak streets, and will front on both streets.

THE BASE BALL TALK.

Meeting to be Held at the Boody To-Morrow.

Everybody Interested in Having a Club Should Attend and Give the Affair a Boom.

Manager Schmelz has discussed the base ball situation with citizens thoroughly during the past few days and thinks there is no question but what the necessary funds can be obtained to run a club here this season.

To this end he has called a meeting at the Boody house parlors for to-morrow night and invites everybody interested in the game to attend. At this meeting the progress made will be explained, and it is hoped to take the steps necessary to secure a club.

Considerable stock has already been subscribed and the street car companies have agreed to do the square thing.

The new western will be to the base ball world what the American association was in its best days, and the franchise of Toledo in the association will sell in a year hence for more than the full amount of the stock necessary to conduct the ball club.

Toledo's experience in base ball has taught her people to know the value of a base ball franchise, and the lovers of the game are hopeful that the meeting will be well attended.

With the attendance anything like it was two years ago, and the expenses as light as they will be this year, a stock company of $10,000 could declare a handsome dividend.

A correspondent from Durango says that formerly about one-half of the children in the city died from the sting of the scorpion; but now nearly all the lives are saved, if taken in time, by the use of a strong tincture of aconite, of which five or six drops are put in a tumbler half full of water and a teaspoonful given at frequent intervals.

Last evening Mrs. C. J. Wooley gave a novel and most enjoyable phantom and general ghost party, for her nephew Walter Wooley. While the ladies appeared as phantoms, the gentlemen came robed in all styles and shapes imaginable. There were darkies with enormous razors, gentlemen from the wooley west armed to the teeth, Germans and Irishmen. All these curious guests joined in having a jolly time and it goes without saying that they had it. A substantial supper was served and with excellent music the evening was well rounded out.

The Pleasure Euchre club held their second meeting at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wis, of Oneida street, on Wednesday evening. A very enjoyable time was had. After the awarding of prizes, a splendid luncheon was served. Mrs. T. Laskey and Mr. C. H. Burns received the first favors, while after a spirited contest between Messrs. O. F. Hoffmaster, T. Laskey and L. De La Foret, the booby was awarded to Mr. De La Foret. The next meeting will be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. I. Machlup, of Bancroft street.

The Misses Hildebrand and Milburn gave a phantom party last evening at their home on Monroe street. Very ghost-like was the appearance of the guests as they glided round completely enveloped in sheets and pillow-cases. Excellent music was furnished by the Spanish Students and refreshments were served late in the evening. The guests were Messrs. Art Barkdull, Roy Packard, Frank Sisson, Charlie Urban, Mr. Currier, Mr. Rood, and Mr. Bliss, Misses Belle Lighter, Pearl Lighter, Edna Underwood, Kate Ellis, and Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas.

A—"number, please?"—had a pleasant time at the residence of C. E. Cook of Vermont avenue last evening. The occasion was a surprise on Mr. Cook, it being his birthday anniversary. All the employes of the Telephone Co. were present, substitutes being engaged for the night operators. The evening was spent in card playing and dancing, music being furnished by the "Crickets." Elegant refreshment were served late in the evening and the table was prettily decorated with cut flowers. At a late hour the young people departed, wishing Mr. Cook "many happy returns of the day."

Master Roy Grover pleasantly entertained a number of friends last evening with a dancing party, at his home corner Crittenden and Maumee avenue. Refreshments were served at 9:30 o'clock after which the young people danced until 1:30 o'clock this morning. Among the guests were Misses Harris, Blanche Stoker, Mabble Waddick, Ada Thomas, Cad and Nettie Arnsman, Rosa and Bertha Hoffman, Lizzie Broer, Maud and Grace Bloomfield, Bessie Matthews, Julia Jacobs, Grace LeHaney, and Messrs. Lynn, Jenny, Mettler, Richards, Broer, Wheeler, Meister, Koehler and Nolan. Chas. Bennra and Will Mettler furnished the music for the merry dancers.

Last evening Miss Tinie Schaal was surprised by many of her friends. The fore part of the evening little Amy Schaal, 4 years of age, entertained the guests by jigging. The evening of pleasure was planned by Miss Kittie Werner. Among the guests were: The Misses Tilly Willbauck, Flora and Agnes Geller, Marrie Klinger, Emma Wernert, Clara Leichtweis, Theresa Keisher, Dollie McAlleese, Miranda Benore, Dora and Minnie Trimmers, Minnie Brenzinger, Anna and Clara Himmelspack, Mammie Simon, Minnie Albert, Rose Marks, Abby and Susie Herman, Lizzie Thige, Clara Rheinhardt, Millie Moser, Annie Weis, Maggie Niemiller, Caroline Stoll, Lula Debolt, Pearl Daile, Edna Hoffmaster, Lillie Geutner, Lillie Eggleston and Paula Schall. Catarrh Described.

The Different Phases of the Disease Graphically Told.

A Letter Fully Answered For the Benefit of the Public—Grateful Patients Giving Their Experience.

Among the many letters received by Dr. Copeland and associates during the past few days, we take one inquiring what Catarrh is, and what portions of the body it affects.

Many people labor under the mistaken idea that Catarrh means simply a discharge from the nostrils, with a hawking and spitting of mucus; but to the observing physician who makes a specialty of the disease, the word Catarrh means more. Experience has taught him that Catarrh is by no means confined to the head alone, but that the entire system is frequently affected by it. Thus we have:

Catarrh of the nose, causing frontal headaches (more commonly known as neuralgia), a sense of dullness or drowsiness, dizziness, confusion of thoughts, etc.

Catarrh of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, causing sore throat, cough, hoarseness or entire loss of voice, bronchitis, asthma, pneumonia, etc.

Catarrh of the stomach (more commonly known as dyspepsia), causing indigestion, heartburn, water brash, nausea, fetid breath, palpitation or fluttering of the heart, shortness of breath, etc.

Catarrh of the bladder, with its long list of symptoms, causing diabetes, Bright's disease, etc.

Catarrh of the bowels, causing alternate diarrhoea and constipation, piles, etc. In fact, Catarrh affects more or less all the mucus surfaces of the entire body, causing at times severe local or general neuralgic or rheumatic pains. So when we are asked (as we often are by patients) whether we treat other diseases as well as catarrh, we answer, yes.

We Treat All Chronic Diseases.

Because experience has taught us that nearly every chronic disease in this climate is due to a general catarrhal condition of the system, and in treating this condition we cure the disease.

Our method of treatment is peculiarly adapted to this class of ailments of the entire mucus tract of the body, as it is both local and constitutional, and each year's experience and successful treatment only confirms our claim that this is the only true and rational mode of treatment. In this we are borne out by hundreds—nay thousands of testimonials from grateful patients.

In seeing patients who have been treated by Dr. Copeland and associates, the reporter is often embarrassed by the enthusiastic praise that the quandam sufferer showers upon the physicians, and the indiscriminate manner in which he speaks of the details of his ailment and the cure effected. He seems to be so delighted over his present happy condition, that he can utter nothing but expressions of gratitude and praise and he sums up the sufferings of the past in general terms decidedly unsatisfactory to the one who is after particulars. Such a patient is Mr. Charles Sandberg, of Collingwood avenue and Lafayette street, he says:

"I suffered from a catarrhal condition for a number of years. Of late years it has been much worse, and I began to fear I never would get rid of it. I had severe headaches nearly all the time. At times I would have a bad cough; I was constantly raising mucus; my head would stop up, and hard lumps formed in the nostrils; my ears became affected.

Charles J. Sandberg, Corner Collingwood Avenue and Lafayette Street

I had a constant roaring and buzzing sound that impaired my hearing; the sense of smell was nearly gone and my breath was offensive. My tonsils became so enlarged as to change my voice and make speaking difficult. I had pains in my chest—sharp, shooting pains that would extend to my back. I had night sweats and my appetite was poor; I suffered considerably from constipation, and in fact, my whole system was run down.

"Some time ago I began treatment with Dr. Copeland and associates, whose offices are at 706 Madison street. They have done for me more than any other doctors or all the patent medicines and remedies that I have taken. I have increased in weight several pounds. I can sleep well. In fact, I feel better to-day than I have for many years.

They Have Cured Me.

And I cheerfully recommend them to those suffering as I did. Dr. Copeland and associates are gentlemen; physicians of ability; and are doing a great amount of good to suffering humanity in this city."

SAD AFFAIR.

Deperate Attempt at Suicide by a Young Lady.

Miss Iva Freeman, of Adams Township, Cuts Her Own Throat and May Die.

What may yet end in a tragedy in a quiet country home occurred at the residence of Robert Freeman, the Adams township gardner, last evening, and a sad household is mourning the rash act of a daughter.

The cause of this is an attempt at suicide made by Miss Iva Freeman, who cut her throat in two places early last evening, and also made two deep gashes in her wrist, the evident intention of the unfortunate woman being to bleed to death.

Her desperate act was at once discovered, and the lady's brother came to the city immediately and secured Dr. O. S. Brigham who went to the farm and dressed the wounds.

Miss Freeman is about 30 years of age, and it is not known what caused her to make an attempt at self destruction.

She was still alive this morning, but was hanging between life and death with but slight hopes of recovery.

THE STEAM YACHT SIGMA

To be Remodeled From Stem to Stern.

Col. Reynolds Decides to Make Some Costly Improvements—The Work Begun.

Col. S. C. Reynolds has decided to remodel and in many ways change and improve his handsome steam yacht, Sigma.

The yacht has just got of the stocks where she received a thorough overhauling. She is to be remodeled from stem to stern. New cabins, new decks will be built. An improved boiler and engine is under consideration and will probably be added.

The cabins will be of mahogany and all the furnishings will be of the finest and best. A new self-condenser is being placed in position and the work of repair will be pushed to rapid completion. The cost of the improvements estimated at $15,000.

FATHER KOLASINSKI.

The Case Still on in Police Court.

Conclusion of the Prosecution—The Defense is Trying to Prove a Conspiracy.

The trial of Father Kolasinski, charged with criminal assault, occupied the police court until after 10 o'clock last evening, and all of to-day. The cross examination of the girl alleged to have been assaulted was concluded yesterday afternoon, after she had been on the stand for two days, under a constant fire of cross examination from Attorneys Pilliod and Ritchie.

Other witnesses for the state were Dr. Brigham, who testified to having made a medical examination of the girl, and the father and mother, who testified that the girl had told them of the alleged actions of the priest.

Here the prosecution rested, and the defense presented a number of witnesses yesterday in an endeavor to show a conspiracy against Father Kolasinski.

The priest's housekeeper testified to having been in the house on the days when the assault is said to have occurred, and she stated that the girl was not there on those days. Other testimony was introduced to show the good character of the priest and the bad character of the girl.

After the regular docket in court this morning the case was again taken up and the defense continued introducing testimony.

Father Kolasinski took the stand in his own defense to-day and was still on when the Bee went to press. He makes a denial of the charges. The case will probably be concluded to-day.

Police Court Bailiff I. J. Wernert fell on the icy ground in the police station alley this afternoon and severely injured his knee. He was sent home and will probably be laid up for several days.

In probate court this morning the case of the state against Joseph Lacourse, charged with assault and battery, was tried, and the defendant, Lacourse, found guilty. He was fined $5 and costs, which was paid.

Baby

Your Baby: sick all last night—cross this morning; colic hurts; little hands clutch the air; the wee body twists, the tender stomach is big with flatulence.

Helpless! Hours before the doctor can come; what is to be done?

DR. HAND has the remedy for Baby. He had it 25 years ago, but it wasn't so well known then.

It stops colic short metre, gives the little one rest—gives the family a rest.

A little Book, illustrated, full of sense and suggestion, will be sent to any one in the land FREE. It tells you how to do your part in caring for Baby. DR. HAND'S COLIC CURE is 25 cents a bottle—it's worth $25 in an emergency. 25 cents in stamps gets it. If you want a trial bottle, or a free book, address

Little Enthusiasm at the Republican Club

Meeting and a Great Falling Off in Attendance.

President Squire's Character Publicly Attacked.

Circulars Distributed Broadcast In the Streets of the State Capital Which May Cause Trouble at a Later Date.

Columbus, O., Feb. 12.—At 11:30 this morning President W. I. Squire, of the republican state league of clubs, called the state convention of delegates to order in the grand opera house and after invocation by Rev. Mr. Green, of Wilmington, read his address.

His mention of Gov. McKinley's name in connection with the presidency, called forth uproarious applause.

Secretary Chester's report showed that 300 new clubs were organized during the last campaign, and there are now 530 in the state.

Treasurer B. L. McElroy's report showed that $2,597.25 have been received as dues from clubs and $324.28 expended.

There is strong opposition to President Squire's re-election, and boys are distributing circulars attacking his character, but the opposition is not united and Squire will probably be re-elected.

The attack made on President Squire is very bitter, and refers to his career in Toledo.

The attendance is much less than was expected, falling fully one-third short of the number looked for.

FROM THE OHIO CAPITAL.

Fremont's Bond Bill Goes Through the Senate.

Parks Foster for Toledo Asylum Trustee.

The Sherman Election Resolution Put to Sleep—New Labor Commissioner—General Legislative Matters.

Columbus, Feb. 12.—(Special)—When the Nicholas gas and oil bill was taken up by the senate yesterday afternoon the republicans were at sea as to what should be done with so important a matter to the state and many of its citizens.

During the noon recess yesterday somebody informed the author of the bill that Senator Gear would offer an amendment, so he made a short cut to secure a similar amendment with the amount of royalty stricken out.

In all other particulars it was the same, so when the subject was placed before the senate Nicholas offered it as a substitute. This brought on a contest in which the friends of the people were successful and the bill, with its amendments, was postponed until 3 o'clock next Wednesday and made a special order for that hour, the amendments to be printed in the meantime.

This disposition was brought about through the efforts of Senator Geyer, Shaw and eGar who want the bill placed in such a position that the people of the state will be taken care of in place of being compelled to submit to the rule of any moneyed corporation.

Who Will Be Boss?

Mr. Heller, of Lucas county, is somewhat in a quandry if there is any truth in the stories now carried from one representative to another. In all the talk nobody seems to take it moer easy than Charlie Griffin as he goes right along and is consulted by members from both sides as to the best way to secure favorable reports or a passage of tehir favorite local measure, in fact it can be said that he is very popluar with the new members. The talk about Heller is related in the following manner: When Heller's bill authorizing the issue of $20,000 in bonds to pay the expenses for the coming spring election was before the house, Flickinger went over to Heller and said "When did you introduce that bill? I was not aware such a measure was before the legislature. You should have consulted me about the matter. Did you say anything to Griffin?" To these questions Mr. Heller replied: "I introduced it several days ago and showed it to Mr. Griffin before it was introduced and he said it was all right. If you had been in the house I would probably have shown it to you, but I am not troubling myself about who I should consult in reference to measures that my constituents want passed.

Toledo Asylum Trustee.

Gov. McKinley yesterday afternoon sent the name of Park Foster, of Lucas county, as trustee of the Toledo insane asylum to the senate. It was referred to the committee on benevolent institutions, which reported it back, and the appointment was confirmed.

McBride's Successor.

W. T. Lewis, of Belmont county, the alleged labor leader who ran for congress against Congressman Dungan and was beaten by 2,500 votes, received his prize yesterday afternoon from Gov. McKinley, who sent his name to the senate as labor commissioner, vice John McBride, who has tendered his resignation, to take effect February 22. The appointment was referred to the committee on labor.

Smothered It.

Representative Dougherty had the resolution asking for an investigation into the election of Senator Sherman referred to a special committee of one, with power to report at any time, which means that it will never be reported.

Oil Investigators.

The president of the senate has appointed Messrs. McConica, Eckley and Burns as members on the part of the senate of the joint committee to investigate the number of leases made by the board of public works and canal commission for gas purposes, and as to the amount of oil produced under them, and the disposition made of the same.

Speaker Laylin appointed Messrs. Holcomb, Bloch, Taylor (of Jefferson), Cunningham and Gaumer.

Senator Snyder.

It is reported that Senator Snyder, who has been absent most of the sesion on account of sickness of himself and wife, has suffered a relapse and it is feared that he cannot recover. Members and officers of the senate sent him a letter expressing sympathy and a hope of his speedy recover.

Ballot Law Amendments.

Senators Phillips and Bebee have been appointed on the part of the senate on a joint committee to certify amendments to the Australian ballot law and report and report a bill.

Lincoln Day.

Representative Flummerfelt introduced a bill this morning providing that Lincoln's birthday, February 12, shall be known as Lincoln's day, and shall be for all purposes considered a holiday.

Bills Passed.

In the senate the following bills passed this morning:

Mr. McCoy—Making appropriation to pay principal and interest on public debt and interest on the irreducible debt.

Mr. Carpenter—Appropriating $20,000 to redeem bonds and pay a mortgage upon the state fair grounds.

Mr. Rorick—Authorizing Archbald special school district to issue $5,000 in bonds to complete a high school.

Senator VanCleaf offered for adoption a resolution authorizing the extension of Neil avenue through the grounds of the grounds of the Ohio State university.

The legislature adjourned until Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Notes.

Representative Blackburn yesterday afternoon introduced in the house a bill to compel county commissioners to open township roads at public expense.

The senate yesterday afternoon unanimously passed Aldrich's house bill authorizing the city of Fremont to issue $35,000 in bonds to retain manufacturing establishments, when same is approved by two-thirds vote of the electors.

House bill by Mr. Taylor, of Champaign, appropriating $84,000 for the Ohio State university, now in the treasury, raised by the tax of 1-20 of a mill levy under the Hysell law, passed the senate yesterday afternoon.

The senate has adopted Strock's house joint resolution providing for the appointment of a committee to prepare a bill covering all amendments desired to the present Australian ballot law and introduce the same in the house.

Senator Eckley introduced a bill yesterday providing for another soft berth for some republican heeler. The office is to be known as state sealer of weights and measures, with a salary of $1,500 per year, the appointment to be made by the state mine inspector with jurisdiction over nothing but mines.

A BOMB IN LISBON.

Lisbon, Feb. 12.—A bomb was exploded to-day in front of the Spanish consulate. No damage was done, but the shock caused alarm in the city. The outrage is attributed to sympathizers with the Spanish anarchists.

GAINS IN REVENUE

For January on Toledo Railroads.

A Wheeling & Lake Erie Appointment—Various Other Matters of Interest to Railroaders.

The following table shows the gains in revenue at Toledo accruing from the weighing of carload and platform freight, classification changes and rate inspection, during the month of January, compiled from the report of the local joint rate inspection bureau:

Wabash	$ 792.92
Michigan Central	1,628.86
T., C. & C.	391.41
T., St. L. & K. C.	1,189.39
Lake Shore	3,113.61
Wheeling & Lake Erie	255.98
C., J. & M.	138.50
C., H. & D.	856.45
Pennsylvania	213.21
C., H. V. & T.	467.06
T., A. A. & N. M.	112.20
Toledo & Ohio Central	227.24

The number of cars weighed and the number in which excesses were found were as follows: Wabash weighed 22 cars, of which 72 were found to contain excess freight; Michigan Central weighed 144 cars, excess 104; T., C. & C. weighed 111 cars, excess 55; Clover Leaf weighed 173, excess 109; Lake Shore weighed 362, excess 223; W. & L. E. weighed 25, excess 22; C., J. & M. weighed 23, excess 14; C., H. & D. weighed 209, excess 65; Pennsylvania weighed 96, excess 3; C., H. V. & T. weighed 85, excess 27; T., A. A. & N. M. weighed 35, excess 4; T. & O. C. weighed 110, excess 35.

A Test Case.

The Toledo & Ohio Central railroad was sued by Elmer McCain some time ago for $52 for extra time as brakesman under the eight-hour law enacted last winter. The railroad company filed its answer in the case. It denies that the company is indebted to the plaintiff for the reason that he failed to avail himself of the provisions of the law by making a new contract subsequent to the passage of the act. The outcome of the case will be watched with interest.

An Ohio Coal Road.

The prospects for the building of the new north and south road from Sandusky through Norwalk to Ashland and Coshocton are good. General Manager Hoxsey, with Chief Engineer Brewer, were in Norwalk to consult with Hon. C. P. Wickham, vice-president of the road. Surveying parties have started from both ends of the line. Mr. Hoxsey says that men of capital have become interested in the road, and that the same will be built without doubt. This will be an important coal road.

To Be Made a Freight Division.

The Ohio State Journal is authority for the statement that Upper Sandusky will be made a freight division on the Columbus, Hocking Valley & Toledo railway.

Cinders Here and There.

E. N. Kendall, traveling freight agent of the B. & O., is up in Michigan.

Superintendent of Telegraph William Kline of the Lake Shore was at Cleveland yesterday.

Taking effect shortly Bucyrus will come under the jurisdiction of the Toledo Car Service association.

District Passenger Agent John E. Gunckel of the Lake Shore, since February 1, has sent out 17,000 folders.

A. H. Thorpe, formerly cashier of the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad, has been appointed assistant treasurer and the office of cashier abolished.

FORAKER, COX & COMPANY

They Are Barnacles on the Republican Ship,

And Must be Removed to Save the Craft.

Cincinnati Republicans in Revolt Against the Methods Used to Control the Public Patronage.

Columbus, O., Feb. 12.—(Special)—The republican members to-day received a circular from an organization of republicans in the city of Cincinnati asking for their influence and moral support to aid the republican party in Cincinnati to get rid of George B. Cox, who has, as circular states, been disposing of the city and county officers for personal gain to himself and friends.

In fact it is stated that his manipulations have been such that an organization is perfected by which he controls all appointments for his own personal gain.

The circular states that it is the intention of the better class of citizens to relegate Cox and his crowd from control of political power in that city.

One republican member said that just as soon as it could be done there would be introduced a bill taking from this organization and their friends all offices and power.

When this is done look out for a large row in the republican party of Cincinnati. Foraker will stand by "Coxsie, Old Boy," and all government officials will join to throw down Foraker, Cox & Co.

BLACK FLAG IN NEW YORK

Sixty-Five Cases of Malignant Typhus Fever,

All Among the Lately Arrived Foreigners.

The Health Officers Doing All They Can to Keep the Disease From Spreading Through the City.

New York, Feb. 12.—Eight new cases of typhus fever have been discovered in various parts of this city since 1 o'clock this morning, thus making, with the 57 cases unearthed yesterday, 65 cases in all.

The victims are all, or nearly all, Jews, both Russian and Polish, who recently arrived here on the steamship Massila from Marseilles, and who on landing, although the ship was said to be infected, found sleeping accommodations in some of the lowest tenement houses on the east side.

All the victims have been removed to North Brother island, and the places they were taken from carefully fumigated and quarantined, a black flag being floated from a short distance on either side of the pestilent house.

The hospital on North Brother Island is filled to its utmost capacity and the physicians there will to-day erect a large wooden pavilion to accommodate a large number of patients.

Dr. Edson, of the health board, said to a United Press reporter this morning: "The plague is by no means ended. We have acted promptly and on the first suspicion, but you see how many had been scattered around and had already come in contact with many other persons and you may look for new cases hourly. I have ordered fresh squads of men to do duty on the case. We have seen nothing like it in years.

TO MEET IN TOLEDO.

The Purchasers of the C., J. & M. Railroad

To Complete Final Arrangements and Organize—The Sale Confirmed.

A meeting will be held in Toledo Wednesday, February 17, in the matter of the Cincinnati, Jackson & Mackinaw railroad sale, to organize formally and finish up business connected with the purchase.

Yesterday Judge A. J. Ricks, of the United States circuit court, at Cleveland, confirmed the sale of the road to the New York syndicate represented by Chairman Tod and legally by Col. Robert G. Ingersoll. The syndicate represented by Gen. A. V. Rice, and popularly supposed to be backed by Senator Calvin S. Brice, and which bid successfully upon the central division, had failed to make good its purchase by making the final payment, and therefore the New York syndicate secured the whole line. For the central division $150,000 was paid, and for the terminal sections $2,500,000.

It is stated that the road will be a part of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton system and operated as such. Its name has not been decided upon, but it may be the Cincinnati & Central Michigan Railroad company.

At yesterday's meeting there were present Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, Mr. H. W. Calhoun, of New York, Mr. F. B. Drake, of Toledo, the general manager of the road under the present receiver; Mr. F. B. Swayne, of Toledo, representing the receiver, and several other distinguished men.

THE BRONSON ESTATE.

Remarkable Developments Revealed by Appraisers.

Thousands of Dollars Given Away to People in Distress—Thousands More Thrown Away in Bogus Enterprises.

F. A. Kumler, Henry Conrad and Henry Merrill, the appraisers of the Bronson estate, filed their report in the probate court to-day, and the facts and figures developed by the appraisement shows a truly remarkable condition of affairs.

As will be seen the dead man was liberal to a fault. No one ever applied to him while in distress or need in vain. There are no less than 22 notes ranging in value from $25 to $1,800 and amounting in all to $7,000, that are appraised as valueless. The notes were taken from citizens who were in need of assistance and never able to redeem them. The financial troubles that have involved so many Toledo men in the past five or ten years seem to have been relieved in a more or less degree by Mr. Bronson's kindness and liberality.

Then he was the victim of every shark, it would seem, that struck the city, with any kind of wind-bag scheme on hand; an idea of his operations in this line will be seen from the following table of valueless stocks held by him:

10 shares Magdalena Mining Co, each	$ 25
42 shares Perfection Mfg. Co.	100
600 shares Utah Silver Mining Co.	100
30 shares Citizens' Electric Co.	100
4,600 shares Iron Mask Mining Co.	125
4 shares Mower and Reaper Co.	50
Notes, Peter Klahr	10,000
20 shares Cotton Gin Co., each	50
13 shares Tri-State Fair, each	10

The following is a summary of the dead man's effects. As stated in the Bee a week ago it approaches close on three-fourths of a million dollars. The total as given does not include the valueless stocks, etc.:

Total stock of bills receivable	$ 53,341.55
Office furniture	283.85
Moneys	5,008.03
Real estate	681,530
Total appraisement	$740,163.43

THE CHARITY BALL.

'Twill be a Gay Event in Society Circles.

Pythian Castle to be Thrown Open for the Party—Everything in Readiness.

The final arrangements for the charity ball, which occurs to-night at Pythian castle, are completed, and the event promises to be a charming one.

The ladies are well pleased with the sale of tickets, more having been sold this year than for any previous party. Wolff's full orchestra will furnish the music, and every effort is being made to have the ball a complete successs.

The following ladies will act on the committees:

Decorations—Mrs. Rowsey, Mrs. Drake and Mrs. Nettleton.

Supper—Mrs. Kline and Mrs. J. B. Ketcham.

Reception—Officers of the board.

The guests will be received in the lodge reception room. Pythian castle is an ideal place for a ball, and its elegant rooms will be thrown open to those who attend the party to-night, and have not had the pleasure of inspecting them before. Many of the ladies will appear in new and pretty costumes made for the occasion, and beauty and splendor will reign supreme.

THE BUILDERS' EXCHANGE.

Most of the Details Have Been Completed,

And the Charter Applied for This Morning—Synopsis of the Constitution and Rules Governing.

The organization of the Builders' Exchange of the city of Toledo was practically completed last evening, and the young child, which is by no means an infant, as infants go, started out on its existence sturdy and strong, some 350 prominent gentlemen connected with the industries of building as contractors, having signed their names to the membership roll. Architect Thos. F. Huber is the father of the organization. Having heard of similar exchanges in other cities he looked the matter up, communicated with those likely to be interested, with the above result. Papers were sent to the secretary of state this morning, for incorporation, and the charter will probably arrive to-morrow. Following is the constitution condensed, omitting detail, and giving all information necessary to form a complete idea of what the exchange is to be and how it will be conducted:

Any person whose avocation is connected with the trades or industries of building as a contractor, and not a member of a journeyman's trade and labor union may become a member upon the approval of the board of directors.

The name of any person or firm wishing to become a member of the exchange shall be placed in a conspicuous place in the exchange room for eight days after his application is received. If no objection is made, the board approves and the applicant is notified by the secretary of his admission. If such application is rejected the initiation fee is returned.

Any member of the exchange belonging to or hereafter joining a trade or labor union shall, at the request of the board of directors, sunder their membership with the exchange.

The names of all members shall be kept posted in a prominent place in the exchange room, and the number of the boxes they occupy shall be attached to the said list.

Upon retirement from active business, any member can become a life member upon payment of $50 dollars.

Any architect, or assistant, upon application to the board of directors, and said appplication being granted, shall be entitled to the privileges of the exchange, except the right to vote, without payment of dues.

Honorary members must comply with the rules of the exchange as well as the paying members.

Persons other than those mentioned can become subscribers to the exchange and enjoy all the privileges, except the right to vote on matters pertaining to the management of mechanical trades as represented in the exchange.

The officers shall consist of a president and two vice presidents, who with 12 members shall constitute a board of directors. Directors will be elected at the first meeting of the Exchange in March, and shall be divided into two classes, six to hold office for two years, the other six one year. Thereafter one-half of the board shall be chosen annually, to hold office for two years.

The duties of the officers shall be much the same as those of any organization.

All financial and business concerns of the Exchange shall be managed and conducted in accordance with the rules of the association by and under the direction of the board of directors. The board will annually elect a secretary, treasurer and other subordinate officers or servants. All such appointments to be revocable at the will of the board. The board shall fix the salary of the secretary and other persons appointed to service, and they shall require the secretary and treasurer to furnish bonds.

The board shall hold meetings on the first Monday of each month, or oftener if they think proper.

They shall cause to be provided suitable rooms for the meeting of the members, which shall be kept open during the usual business hours, from 7:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. The hours from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. daily shall be set apart for a general meeting for the transaction of business.

The board may appoint committees for such service as they think necessary. These committees shall have power to summon witnesses and any member failing to respond when summoned will be liable to expulsion.

No appropriation shall be made for any purpose except for legitimate expenses of the exchange.

There shall be an annual meeting on the first Monday of March, for the election of officers and a semi-annual meeting on the first Monday in September.

There shall be a regular meeting every Wednesday and the president will call special meetings at any time upon the request of five members.

A quorum shall consist of not less than 20 members.

When there are two or more members belonging to a firm and having the privileges of the exchange, but one member shall have the right to vote.

The initiation fee for charter members shall be $25. Candidates elected to membership after the charter is closed, March 1, will be required to pay $50 for initiation. The annual dues shall be $12, payable quarterly in advance.

In default of the payment of any assessment within 30 days the member's name shall be dropped from the roll and his privileges cease.

If there be a deficiency in funds at the time the treasurer makes his annual report an assessment shall be made. The amount so assessed shall not exceed the annual dues.

Amendments can be made to the constitution at the annual meeting or at special meetings after due notice.

For the expulsion of any member it shall be necessary for five members to so petition in writing stating reasons. Any member having a grievance or charges against any other member shall notify the board, a hearing will be granted and the result presented to the exchange when a two-thirds vote of the members present shall be necessary for the expulsion of a member.

When two members shall request arbitration on any special grievance, or dispute in matters of business, then application shall be referred to three members of the arbitration committee to be selected, one by each party, these two to select a third. Each member of such committee to be allowed $2 per day to be paid by the party against whom the decision may be rendered.

The by-laws are short and sweet, and will be amended as the need is made apparent.

THREE BURGLARS

Bound Over From the Police Court.

They Are Thought to be the Gang That Has Been Breaking Into Vacant Houses.

Frank Nadolsky and Daniel Evers were arraigned in police court this morning on a charge of burglary and larceny. They waived examination and were bound over to the common pleas court with bail fixed at $500 each.

These men are charged with having entered the plumbing shop of G. B. Schultz, on Washington street, and stealing a quantity of lead pipe and other metal.

A house belonging to I. E. Knisely was also entered Wednesday night and some lead pipe taken away. These same men are suspected of doing this job and several others of a like character. The police have been looking for them for some time and their arrest was a clever bit of work by Patrolmen Williams and Van Buskirk.

Wednesday night these officers discovered a pile of lead pipe and other junk on the commons between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets at Monroe. They watched the place and about midnight captured these two fellows when they came to carry the stuff away.

George Peterson was also arraigned in police court on a like charge for breaking into the carpenter shop of John L. Burns, on Monroe street. He was arrested yesterday and the tools recovered. Peterson likewise waived examination and was bound over in the sum of $500.

LEADING GIRLS TO RUIN

Detroit in the Midst of a Great Sensation.

Five Young Ladies Have Disappeared.

The Awful Suspicion Exists That They Have Been Induced to Leave Home and Then Thrown Into a Life of Shame.

Detroit, Feb. 12.—The Detroit police are inclined to attribute a sudden and complete disappearance of five young girls within the last few weeks to a Chicago procuress, who is said to be operating in this city.

The five girls are all between the ages of 13 and 17. The first to disappear was Mabel Scott, the 15-year-old daughter of Thomas Scott, a mechanic employed by the Ressell wheel and iron works.

On January 23 Rosa Basowitch, a remarkably pretty 13-year-old Polish girl, disappeared from her home at No. 944 Chene street, and not the slightest trace of her has been found.

Following close upon this case was that of Hattie Lesnow, who lived within two doors of Rosa Basowitch. Hattie told her parents that she had secured a place as a nurse girl on Alfred street, and took her clothes with her. She was 17 years old and quite good looking.

While Miss Lottie Griffiths, daughter of George H. Griffiths, western salesman for a Utica shoe firm, was on her way to Cleveland one day last July, she met a woman who gave her name as Brownell. This woman became much attached to Lottie and urged the girl to accompany her to Europe.

Lottie's parents refused to listen to such a proposition, but the girl ran away from home when pressed by Miss Brownell, who came to Detroit to see her. They started for New York, as Lottie supposed, but landed in Chicago where they went to a house on North Clark street, the Brownell woman pretending that she had business to attend to before leaving that night.

Lottie was drugged and ruined. She became the mistress of a board of trade man, but was discarded by him when it became apparent she was about to become a mother. Instead of pursuing a life of shame she repented and came home to her parents, who forgave her.

The police are of opinion that Miss Brownell is still working Detroit for girls who are sent to Chicago. She also operates in Cleveland, where she stops at the Hollenden house. They credit the other disappearances to the Chicago procuress.

JUDICIAL APPOINTMENTS.

Washington, Feb. 12.—Some misunderstanding has been caused by the appointment of Congressman McKenna to be judge of the Ninth judicial circuit. He does not fill the place made by the law providing for nine additional circuit judges, but the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Sawyer.

The additional judge is yet to be appointed, and it is understood he will be from Oregon.

WHITNEY & TRACY SUITS.

Another Dismissed in Court This Morning,

And it is Likely the Rest Will Follow on Account of the First Decision.

Another of the noted Whitney & Tracy cases was disposed of in common pleas court to-day.

This is one of 21 cases on file in common pleas court against the lumber firm of Whitney & Tracy, insolvent. The object is to establish a partner's liability against Dora Tracy, a special partner.

The first case on trial was that of John P. Allison against Benjamin H. Whitney et al., to recover on a note. This was a test case, and was most vigorously contested. A verdict for the plaintiff was returned by the jury, which was set aside by the court, mention of which was made by the Bee at the time.

This morning the case of Lucius P. Mason against Whitney & Tracy was at issue, and was dismissed by the court. On Monday another case will be taken up.

TOLEDO, OHIO, FEBRUARY 11, 1892.

Gov. Boies of Iowa is a statesman of growing qualities.

Griffin's tombstone bill is daddied by McConica this year, but it is not improved at all.

The Chicago Herald rates ex-Gov. Campbell as one of the most promising of many good presidential candidates.

The award of the garbage contract for a period of five years to Mr. D. J. O'Hara will disappoint a lot of blood suckers, in and out of council.

The more the democrats of New York quarrel this winter the better will be the prospect of nominating a western man for president in June.

Judge Bowersox, of Bryan, republican, covered himself with glory in his effort to stay the hand of partisanship in the republican senate. He ably represented Judge Sutphen in the contest case.

Nine thousand bills are already introduced in congress this session, yet those of the opposition who enjoyed the rush, jingle and scattering of treasure indulged in by its predecessor are complaining of slowness of the Fifty-second.

A Toledo evening organ assured its readers last night that the cause of agricultural depression is over-production—"the world has been raising more than it could consume." And yet there are twenty millions of people suffering for bread just across the sea and in a country rich enough to pay its ruler a salary of $25,000 a day.

The reciprocity negotiations between Canadian envoys and government authorities at Washington are declared by grit journals to mean nothing beyond a farce on the part of the tories to deceive the people as to their desires and intents. They desire no trade treaty but make a feint of trying to obtain concessions and will throw the blame of failure on the United States government. Canadian politicians are qualified for "annexation."

The Toronto Empire, reviewing the report of the "American pension bureau" comments upon the fact that there are 1,315 United States pensioners living in Canada and says:

> Surely this should be investigated, and the American soldiers who are driven from their homes and the blessings of a sixty million market be somehow or other restored to the wealth and prosperity of a 60 per cent. tariff.

Hold your peace, neighbor; a bill was introduced in congress the other day to cut off these alien pensions.

The disposition to attack the personal character of public men is the curse of American politics, and in no instance is vindictiveness more pronounced than in the New York Sun's assault upon Gen. Alger. No one except personal enemies ever insinuated that Alger was a poor soldier, and it is a late day now to attack him. There is enough to say against his politics without turning his soldier record inside out to see whether he chanced to be behind a stump when a cannon ball was tossed at him.

In the report submitted to congress by Secretary of the Treasury Foster on December last the estimate for pensions during the fiscal year 1893 was $147,164,550. The same report estimated the surplus left in the treasury that year would be $14,000,000. Now comes Commissioner Raum, informing the committee on pensions that for the fiscal year 1893 he will need $160,000,000. A little difference of $13,000,000 between two official estimates for the same purpose is one of the many indications of recklessness in the present administration of governmental affairs which carries its own lesson, without further comment.

Politics which temporizes is not broad enough to cover a country so diversified in its requirements as the United States. The bill before congress to prohibit dealing in futures is a catch-penny dodge believed to be pleasing to the farmers. It is nothing of the sort. Gambling is one thing, legitimate business quite another. The man who agrees to sell or buy wheat or corn to be settled for at a future date does no more than the farmer who contracts his wool clip before shearing, or the fruit raiser who contracts his whole peach crop. Congress can no more regulate one than the other. On general principles the Hatch bill ought to be killed.

Massachusetts manufacturers will note with satisfaction that under the new arrangement there is a 50 per cent. reduction in the duty on boots and shoes in all the British West India colonies except Jamaica. There is also a good chance for many other products of New England industry. Reciprocity will be a great war cry in the New England states next autumn.—Boston Journal.

Then a reduction of duty does mean an expansion of trade. The campaign of education goes bravely on. Every article that manipulator Blaine manages to get placed on the free list calls forth a republican chorus, "see what we have done for the people." Blaine only saw the temper of the people when he insisted upon that amendment to the McKinley prohibitive bill; the unthinking party followers shout lustily for free trade with a republican brand upon it, and wot not of its significance.

The government has aided in the building of railroads across the great American desert, shall it now aid in irrigating it to the end that the hundreds of millions of acres of waste lands shall become habitable and fruitful? The government extends its aid to build up factories and enrich their owners, shall it now deal in like manner with the development of agricultural industries? The policy has been growing with the country's growth and the hitch seems to come only when the favors threaten to take a new form and a contributing class indicate a desire to take a hand in the profit sharing. The question of irrigation is one of the most important before the country. It is a question of expediency simply and not of constitutional right, if precedents established are within the limit of such right. Neither is there doubt and speculation as to results, where water supply can be assured. The evergreen oasis in the midst of the mighty plain attest to this for a certainty. The great Wasatch mountains never fail to send their soft purling streams into Salt Lake valley. The broad, rapid rivers show no signs of lessening. The possibilities for the most wonderful grain fields and vineyards are there, lying in wait. It is only a question of time and means.

GOVERNOR CAMPBELL.

The Buffalo-Courier announces that Senator Gorman believes ex-Governor Campbell of Ohio "could rally more young democrats than any other western man yet named in connection with the presidency." The Courier is of the same opinion, and pays our late governor the following well-deserved compliment:

"In the face of great odds and discouragements Mr. Campbell last fall made in Ohio one of the most vigorous, brilliant and effective campaigns ever seen in any state. He is rightfully admired by all democrats who like pluck, sincerity, manliness and fair play."

A CLOUDED JUDGESHIP.

By the most indecent manipulation of partisanship Mr. W. N. Snook, of Paulding county, is saddled upon the people of Williams, Paulding and Defiance as a Judge of Common Pleas. He is no more entitled to the office than is a big water elm of Paulding, or a gnarled sycamore of the Maumee. With a clouded title he will be no more respected on the bench than would a bass wood man propped against the bench that for twenty years was honored with Latty and for seven years graced with Sutphen. The election of Judge Sutphen was conceded by everybody except a few ultra republicans. The seating of Snook is a disgraceful exhibition of political meanness. Snook will be called judge and will draw the pay of judge, but as a judge of a court which ought to command respect he and his court will be wholly without respect.

Senator Stanford, one of California's millionaires, is the advocate in the upper house of the government land-loan bill of which he is the author, which leads the Courier-Journal to ask the following very pertinent questions: "Why doesn't Senator Stanford organize an association of millionaires who will lend the farmer money at 2 per cent.? Aren't the millionaires better able to lend it at that rate than the tax-payers?"

The assurance of Mr. Joseph Manley, the close friend of the man from Maine, that Secretary Blaine's letter is final, and means what it says, delights the soul of Editor Hatton, who gleefully announces, "All those holding tickets for the Blaine boom can now have their money refunded by applying at the box office."

An Atlanta paper has a Washington dispatch to the effect that President Harrison has conveyed to the ears of his party leaders of the south that he wants no negroes or federal officeholders sent as delegates to Minneapolis. Negroes—of course not, but why this sensitiveness about officeholders?

A New York Assemblyman who has clamored to witness an execution by electrocution was gratified the other day at Sing Sing. He has already prepared a bill for the repeal of the law. A member prescribes asafoetida for his nerves, instead of attention to the measure.

The Boston Globe gives the following figures as the number of serviceable ships of war in each of the nations named: Great Britain, 915; France, 490; Germany, 256; Russia, 294; Italy, 204; Norway, 45; Sweden, 68; Chile, 25; United States, 37.

The favorite sons of Illinois are quite a family, Palmer, Cullom, Lincoln, Morrison, Gresham, with more to hear from doubtless. And yet the presidential lightning may not strike in the Sucker state.

There's a new spot on the sun. Has it any political significance? Does it portend an epidemic with a germ attachment? Where are our astrologers?

STARVING MULTITUDES.

Vienna the Mecca for the Hungry.

Vienna, Feb. 12.—Skilled mechanics and others are flocking to this capital from the Austrain provinces and from Hungary, hoping to find some help in their destitution.

The refugees, most of whom are in absolute want, and many of whom have been without food for many days, attribute their miseries to the American McKinley law, which has resulted in throwing them out of work by crushing certain branches of Austrian industries which supplied the American market.

McKinley is spoken of by these poor people as an ogre who has devoured their happiness.

The conditions have begun to alarm the Viennese authorities, as the city has a great deal of local destitution, without being a mecca for a starving multitude from all parts of the empire.

MRS. BARNABY'S MOTHER.

Providence, R. I., Feb. 12.—In an interview last night with Col. Van Slyck, who has charge of the estate of the late Mrs. Barnaby, he stated in answer to a question as to the truth of the statement that Col. Ballou has found in a banking institution $10,000 belonging to the estate, which Dr. Graves had deposited, that he never supposed there was any money of Mrs. Barnaby's in existence except that turned over to him by Dr. Graves.

He said further that no money of the kind mentioned had been turned over to him and that if he had imagined any of Mrs. Barnaby's money existed undiscovered, he would have set out to find it.

THE GARBAGE QUESTION.

St. Louis, Feb. 12.—A delegation of city officials from Milwaukee, consisting of Mayor P. J. Somers, President Henry Hayse, of the city council, Health Commissioner Dr. Wingate, and City Engineer Burgenberg, are here for the purpose of investigating the work of the health department and particularly the garbage deduction system.

NEWSPAPER WAR.

Little Rock, Ark., Feb. 12.—Yesterday the Arkansas Staats Zeitung brought suit against its rival, the Arkansas Echo, for $10,000 damages. In December the Echo's office was broken into, its forms pied and its type carried away. The Echo charged the Staats Zeitung with perpetrating the outrage and this suit is the result.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

"Blessed are the merciful" is the text engraved upon the cross of St. George presented by Queen Victoria to Florence Nightingale.

On the desk at which Rudyard Kipling has done much work are cut with a pen-knife these words: "Oft was I weary when I toiled at thee."

Rev. E. J. Hardy, author of "How to be Happy Though Married," is now serving as an army chaplain in Plymouth, England. His wife is a first cousin of Oscar Wilde.

The Printers' home at Colorado Springs will be fitted out with two parlors. One will be in honor of Mrs. A. J. Drexel, lately deceased, and the other in honor of Mrs. George W. Childs.

A society item current in Washington is that Miss Foster, the daughter of the secretary of the treasury, is so resourceful and so full of tact that she is described by her friends as the "emergency girl."

Grand Duke Sergius, governor general of Moscow, was publicly hissed, according to Russian papers, a few weeks ago. The grand duke, who is a brother of the czar, is not at all popular among his subjects.

Ovid O. Hauk, the father of the well-known prima donna, Minnie Hauk Warteg, died at Orange, New Jersey, last week. He was a native of Baden and was a revolutionist of 1848. He came to this country in 1852.

A marble bust of Harriet Beecher Stowe is to be placed in the woman's department of the world's fair as a contribution of the women of the Nutmeg state. Anne Whitney of Boston has been engaged to make the bust for $1,000.

Felix Volkhopski, the Russian author, who is now in London editing Free Russia, is an escaped Siberian exile. He was banished for life in 1878, upon the charge of belonging to a society which is hostile to the present form of government.

The daughter and the son-in-law of the late Lord Lytton will edit a volume of poems from manuscripts left by the British minister to Paris. Lady Lytton will write the preface. Lord Lytton's "King Poppy," on which he was engaged many years, will soon follow.

Rider Haggard used to wear a gold ring taken from the mummy finger of the long departed Egyptian Queen Taia; but since he grew to be so much more famous he has begun to sport the signet ring found in the coffin of the great Rameses, the Pharaoh of oppression.

At the sale of the Raffles collection of autograph letters and MSS. in Boston on Tuesday, a letter of Maj.-Gen. Artemus Ward, dated Cambridge, June 24, 1775, brought $127, and a broadside copy of the Declaration of Independence printed by William & Thomas Bradford in 1775 sold for $106. A letter of Maj.-Gen. John Thomas, sent from the Roxbury camp to his wife in regard to the siege of Boston, dated April 20, 1775, brought $115. A letter written by Benedict Arnold went for $100.

MENTIONED ON THE STREETS.

That the charity ball is on for this evening.

That base ball may be a go for Toledo after all.

That Judge Lorenz will be a candidate for gas trustee.

That the matrimonial market is not very active at present.

That the C. K. of A. reunion next week will be quite an event.

That service on the Metropolitan line is not giving satisfaction.

That the best patrons of local pool rooms are drummers and actors.

That St. Clair street property appears to be in reasonably active demand.

That Clarence Brown will be a delegate to the republican national convention.

That the alleged slugging match on Water street was a cold-blooded fake.

That John Poag's St. Bernard, Rex, promises to be as great a dog as Watch.

That Mayor Emmick is considering a new name in place of Voit for gas trustee.

That Frank Cheney is talked of as president of the proposed base ball club.

That W. L. Squire took a large number of friends to Columbus at his own expense.

That ex-Senator T. P. Brown is being discussed for one of the gas trustee nominations.

That institutes for the cure of drunkenness are becoming as numerous as the candidates.

That Mayor Emmick dropped the remark yesterday that he had a cinch on the oil inspectorship.

That many of the Catholic societies of Toledo will attend the consecration of Bishop Horstman.

That the city infirmary people have an interesting case of misplaced confidence under consideration.

That W. J. Colburn would have no objection to representing this district at the democratic national convention.

That the big wood-piles adjoining the Bee office are not conducive to low insurance rates for property in the neighborhood.

That the revivals being held in various churches about the city are well attended, but additions to the membership not numerous.

That Ed. Unbehaun is a full-fledged candidate for police clerk, and is doing the button-hole act among the republicans to the queen's taste.

That the contest for oil inspector has quieted down since the lengthy protest against Mayor Emmick's appointment was sent to Columbus.

That it is in order for local republicans to hide their faces after the action of the senate yesterday in unseating Judge Sutphen in the adjoining judicial district, but they won't.

That there is a tacit agreement among several republican leaders that Mr. J. T. Greer is to be nominated for police commissioner, if the friends of Cherry and Nunn do not object too strongly.

That Charley Hirssig's candidacy for street commissioner resulted in one good think—Bower cleaned the streets in his neighborhood. This may induce others to announce themselves, at least one man on each street.

But Not News to the Sun.

Ben Butler admits in his autobiography that he played the sneak in 1884 and that he did not expect to be elected when he ran for the presidency, but hoped thus to defeat Cleveland and elect Blaine. This must be an interesting confession to the New York Sun, which supported him.—Wilmington Star.

The Republican Ante Now.

The only trouble with Bob Lincoln as a Republican Possibility is that he never had a grandfather. It used to be so that a man could play in for the undemocratic nomination on the strength of having a father, but it takes a grandfather for the ante now.—St. Louis Republic.

OHIO Y. M. C. A.

Proceedings of the First Day's Session of the Annual Convention at Akron.

Akron, O., Feb. 12.—By noon fully 200 delegates from the local and college associations of the state had arrived to attend the Y. M. C. A. meeting. The local entertainment committee met all delegates at the depots and escorted them to the association's parlors on Howard street, which will be used as the headquarters of the visiting delegates during the convention. The sessions of the convention are being held in the First M. E. church.

The convention opened at 2:30 yesterday afternoon with welcoming exercises. Bishop W. A. Leonard was expected to deliver the opening address, but in his stead Charles F. Thwing, D. D., president of Adelbert college and Western Reserve university, appeared and ably discussed the subject, "Qualifying for Acceptable Christian Service." The address was pronounced, an exceedingly fine one.

"What have college associations been doing during the year?" was the question propounded for discussion by E. L. Shuey, chairman of the college committee.

Last evening's session began at 7:30 with a service of song. At 8 o'clock W. G. Ballantine, D. D., LL. D., president of Oberlin college, addressed the assembled delegates on the subject, "Young Men as a Factor in Christian Work."

The closing exercises of the evening session was the discussion of the topic, "What is Being Done Among the Young Men in Ohio?" by G. N. Pierce, of Dayton, chairman of the state committee.

OKLAHOMA'S BID.

The Territory Wants to Get Into the Union.

Washington, Feb. 12.—The house committee on territories accorded a hearing to a delegation of citizens of Oklahoma and the Indian Territory on Delegate Harvey's bill enabling the people of Oklahoma and the Indian Territory to form a constitution and state government and be admitted to the union as one state.

The delegation consisted of Hon. Sidney Clark, Hon W. P. Hackey and Hon. Horace Speed, of Oklahoma, and Mr. Johnson and Judge Reagan, representing the white people in the Chickasaw nation.

Mr. Clarke, the chairman of the Oklahoma statehood executive committee, made the first address. He devoted himself principally to an argument in favor of including in the proposed new state all of the old Indian Territory. He then submitted statistics showing the population and value of taxable property in the two territories.

There were, he said, not less than 300,000 people other than Indians in the proposed state. The conditions which existed there were exceptional and could find a remedy only by the establishment of a state government.

A careful estimate showed more than $70,000,000 worth of taxable property which now escapes taxation. This would yield more than $2,000,000 in taxes at a far less rate than that imposed by the surrounding states.

THE STARS AND BARS.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 11.—At the annual encampment of the Massachusetts G. A. R., Commander Arthur Smith, in his report, had this to say of the southern flag question:

"Comrades, when I read in the southern newspapers utterances against our beloved commander-in-chief, John Palmer, and his policy as relates to the treatment of the 'rebel flag,' I feel that the spirit which prompted us to take up arms in defense of the union should weld itself more firmly into our beings to-day, and that we should think many times before we suspend a comrade who was unable to pay his dues. The utterances to which I refer would make the most radical writer on the rebel side during the war blush with shame."

TO CORNER THE CURRENT.

The Two Big Electrical Companies Consolidated.

The Thomson-Houston Company Will Control the Business of the Edison General Company.

New York, Feb. 12.—It is stated here that from this time forward the Thomson-Houston company will practically control the business of the Edison General Electric company.

These two big concerns have consolidated their capital and famous interests. Terms of the agreement involves the surrender of stock in the existing companies to be replaced by stock in the new company. The principal terms of the agreement are these: Shares of the stock of the Edison company shall be exchanged in full payment for shares of common stock in the new corporation, share for share.

Shares of the preferred stock of the Thomson-Houston company shall be exchanged in full payment for shares of the preferred stock of the new corporation at the rate of four shares of the old stock (par $25 each) for one share of the new (par $100 each). Shares of common stock of the Thomson-Houston company shall be exchanged in full payment of common stock of the new corporation at the rate of five shares of the old stock for three of the new.

The stockholders of the Edison Electric company to-day elected the following trustees for the ensuing year: C. H. Coster, Thomas A. Edison, J. H. Herrick, Samuel Munsull, Edward H. Johnson, A. Marcus, Carl Schurtz, Francis S. Smithers, Henry Villard, J. H. Wright, and Samuel Spencer. The only change is the substitution of Mr. Spencer, of Drexel, Morgan & Co., for James B. Williams, of the Northern Pacific railroad.

The annual report was read at the meeting. It showed that the gross business of the company for the year amounted to $10,942,640, on which the profits, including $271,592, written off against the cost of the manufacturing plants, were $1,666,535. With the general receipts at the main office $83,013 added the total net earnings were $1,749,549.71. Deducting the $271,592 charged off on manufacturing plants, and $286,477 charged off against liquidation, materials in stock and experimental account, there remained $1,191,479, adding the $1,100,432 surplus profits carried over from the preceding year the total is $2,291,912. After paying $1,031,845 in dividends, $1,260,067 was carried over into the new year.

CONTRACT AWARDED

For Collecting and Disposing of the City's Garbage

To D. J. O'Hara, the Present Contractor—He Will Have the Work for Five Years—So Decided Last Night.

The council committee on health met last evening and considered the proposals for collecting and disposing of the city's garbage.

Mr. D. J. O'Hara, the present contractor, was by far the lowest bidder, and after some discussion he was awarded the contract for five years at $38,500.

It was the opinion of the committee that a considerable saving would be made by letting the contract for five years at the figures of Mr. O'Hara's proposal.

THE WAREHOUSE MEN.

An Important Meeting Held in Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, Feb. 12.—A meeting of the executive committee of the American Warehousemen's association was held in this city February 10 and 11. There were present: President James A. Greene, Union Transfer and Storage company, Detroit, Mich.; Vice President Samuel Hazlett, Humboldt Warehouse, San Francisco; Secretary and treasurer, Percy Thompson, Belt Line Storage and Warehouse company, Kansas City.

Executive committee—Chairman F. A. Warner, Sibley Fire Proof Warehouses, Chicago; C. W. Otlin, Big Four Storage Warehouses, Cincinnati; Samuel Hazlett, Humboldt Warehouses, San Francisco; Robert Hewitt, Gansevoort Stores, New York; T. S. McPheeters, McPheeter's Warehouse Co., St. Louis; J. R. Price, Cleveland Storage company, Cleveland; also Mr. Sullivan of the Terminal W. S. Co. of New York; Mr. Field of the Cincinnati Warehouse and Cold Storage Co.; Mr. Howard of the Denver Transit and W. H. Co. of Denver; Mr. Coldeway of the Louisville Public Warehouse Co., Louisville; Mr. Coffy and Mr. Tripp of the Dickson Storage and Transfer Co., of Indianapolis.

The purpose and policy of the association were discussed and special committees appointed on various matters of import and upon subjects to be presented at the next annual meeting to be held in Chicago October 19, 1892.

It developed at this meeting that the interests and purposes of this association materially advanced since its organization—resulting in the membership being increased by the admission of some of the largest and most important warehouse companies in the United States—the Empire W. H. Co. of Brooklyn; Terminal W. H. Co. of New York and Moreton Storage Co. of Toledo having entered the association.

CHARGES OF FRAUD.

New York Jewelers Claim to Have Been Swindled.

New York, Feb. 12.—A score of wealthy jewelers, who have their stores and offices in Maiden lane, are singing a tune which is not at all to their liking. The first line tells part of their story, and is: "We have been swindled out of $50,000 worth of loose diamonds and from $30,000 to $100,000 worth of miscellaneous jewelry."

A more indignant lot of merchants would be hard to find, a condition which is emphasized by the fact that many of them believe they will not be able to make the swindlers disgorge.

Substantially it is the old story of a firm building up a fair credit, buying stock heavily on time, and then a suspension, followed by the mysterious disappearance of the assets and books.

This is what the suspended firm of D. Gundling & Co., jewelers, 45 Maiden lane, is accused of doing. Late yesterday afternoon David Gundling, the senior member of the firm, was arrested and lodged in Ludlow street jail, where he remains in default of $10,000 bail. The order was obtained for H. Muhr's Sons, jewelers of Philadelphia.

MARION HEDSPETH.

How He Came to be Detected in San Francisco.

San Francisco, Feb. 12.—Marion Hedspeth, the Glendale express robber, who was captured here, will be taken to St. Louis.

In conversation to-day he ascribed the detection of his whereabouts to letters which passed between himself and a St. Louis attorney, who had, he says, done business for him before.

When his wife was taken east, Hedspeth wrote to the attorney to take up her case and a number of letters were sent to him in this city addressed H. V. Swanson.

One of these incautiously bore an inscription to the effect that if the letter was not delivered in ten days it should be returned to the attorney's address.

The latter was known to have done business for Hedspeth and the latter's identity as Swanson was soon suspected. Hedspeth said he would have left the city in a few days had he not been arrested yesterday.

GUILTY OF EXTORTION.

Pittsburg, Feb. 12.—The jury in the extortion case against Mayor James G. Wyman of Allegheny City brought in a verdict of guilty in the first and second counts of the indictment.

FLAMES ON A FARM.

Massillon, Feb. 12.—The farm residence and two barns belonging to James Calderwood, near Brush college, five miles south of this city, were destroyed by fire last evening. Total loss, $5,000; no insurance.

FIRE AT GENEVA.

Geneva, O., Feb. 12.—J. W. Foster's two barns, granary and contents were destroyed by fire last night. Cause unknown. Loss, $2,000; insurance, $1,175.

WISE FOLKS' SAYINGS.

Seeing much, suffering much, and studying much are the three pillars of learning.—Disraeli.

There is no vice that doth so cover a man with shame as to be discovered in a lie.—Bacon.

Who dares do all that may become a man and dares no more, he is a man indeed.—Shakspeare.

There is certainly something of exquisite kindness and thoughtful benevolence in the rarest of gifts—fine breeding.—Bulwer.

It is only necessary to grow old to become more indulgent. I see no fault committed that I have not committed myself.—Goethe.

No man can be brave who considers pain the greatest evil of life: or temperate, who regards pleasure as the highest good.—Cicero.

If you want to be miserable think about yourself; about what you want, what you like, what respects people ought to pay you, and what people think of you.—Charles Kingsley.

It is a high, solemn, almost awful thought for every individual man that his earthly influence, which has had a commencement, will never, through all the ages, were he the very meanest of all, have an end! What is done is done; has already blended itself with the boundless, ever-living, ever-working universe, and will also work there, for good or for evil, openly or secretly, throughout all time.—Carlyle.

As you know more and more of the created world, you will find that the true will of its Maker is that its creatures should be happy; that he has made everything beautiful in its time and place, and that it is chiefly by the fault of men, when they are allowed the liberty of thwarting His laws, that creation groans and travails in pain (Rom. vii., 22). The love of God exists, and you may see it and live in it if you will.—Ruskin.

IN DARKEST RUSSIA.

The official crusade against education in Russia goes on apace. The governor-general of Kieff, Volhynia, and Podolia (Count Alexis Ignatieff) issued instructions to the provincial police, that all home instruction of children should be subjected to a strict censorship. The remarkable manner in which this censorship was conducted has just been illustrated in the manufacturing borough of Ouladovka in Podolia. The chief of police proclaimed that in the future all workingmen would be prohibited from instructing their children at all, and in order that he might test easily the fullness of their obedience to this order, he commanded that the workingmen's children should not be kept in the house, but sent into the streets, where he, in passing, might observe their occupations. This, however, was not enough. He was informed that several Catholic laborers let their children read papers, and taught them how to write. Thereupon he announced that no educational books or tracts should be kept in the house. He made sure of the observance of his new order by having all his men turn in and search every workingman's house in the city. Wherever educational matter was discovered, or children found studying, a full report of the details of the offense was made, and the books or other educational materials were confiscated.—The Teacher.

A FINANCIAL HINT

What Are the Best Investments?

A Prominent Financier Divulges Some Points on the Large Dividends Paid by Industrial Companies.

(N. Y. Recorder.)

I had a long talk yesterday with one of the most observing financiers of Wall street. He is a man known universally, and whose ideas and judgment are eagerly sought. I found him in a genial mood and he became very confidential, but insisted that I withhold his name.

"It is intensely interesting," he said, "to watch the rise of millionaires and great fortunes. There are so many kinds. Some are made by speculation and have little stability. Others are secured by valuable enterprise, by giving people something they want, something they need. These are upon the surest possible basis. For example, people must have coal oil. Look at the fortunes made from its production. People must telegraph, must telephone. See the millions that have been made by these things. Men and women will get sick. Are you aware of the enormous fortunes that are made in supplying a real cure for them? I know of many, but there is one especially. The gentleman who discovered it has made millions, and the company that owns it is coining money."

"Have you any objections to telling me what it is?" I asked.

"Confidentially, no. I refer to Mr. H. H. Warner. He is a very wealthy man, and his medicine business pays a dividend of from 15 to 20 per cent. annually. He manufactures the Safe Cure we hear so much about. I learn, too, that he is about to add the manufacture of Baking Powder which will doubtless double his profits."

"It is a stock corporation, is it not?"

"Most decidedly. But I learn, sub rosa, that a limited amount of stock is obtainable, but only by certain persons."

"Why is that?"

"The idea, as I understand it, is to have people personally interested in its profits, and their influence naturally tends to doubling the dividends. Any man can afford to part with some of his stock at less than it is worth if the balance that he holds will be doubled in value thereby. You can see that, can't you?"

"Clearly."

"I have heard that Mr. Warner, personally, does not hesitate to put up a guarantee that for the next five years not less than 10 per cent. dividends per year will be paid—the chances are that it will be three times that amount. If you are interested in the matter, though, why don't you drop a line to Mr. H. H. Warner at 50 Broadway. He probably has some inside information that will be of value to you. I have told you all I know, but you can get all the truth by writing to headquarters. Try it."

"What other good investments do you know of?"

"Several. But none as sound as this. I always look carefully for stability as well as large dividends, and anything founded upon the needs of the people is founded upon a rock. Now take my advice and write to Mr. Warner. He will be certain to answer you."

I tried to draw the financier out upon other subjects, but he was so filled with the idea of the Industrials as the best and surest of investments that he would not talk of stocks, bonds, or other fluctuating securities. I have thought the subject over very carefully, and I believe he is right. Certainly there can be nothing more certain than public needs, and nothing more safe than a standard article that supplies these needs. I reproduce this interview for the benefit of any who may be seeking information upon the subject of investments, and who may feel like writing to headquarters, as I was advised to do.—Hamilton.

THE KICKER.

I thought some one would kill him, as he kicked from morn till night,
Or that some mad wretch would fill him full of buckshot out of spite;
But I wondered when the barber gave him just the smoothest shave,
And the waiter and the carver softest hunks for him would save,
And the porter bowed so meekly when he took the kicker's grip,
And all cottoned to him weakly though he never gave a tip.

Trainmen watched with care the heating on the car he patronized,
Not a hackman essayed beating when his kick was realized;
Even newsboys grinned compliance when he quoted office rates,
And fair women sought alliance with this moulder of the fates.
Like a mule, by earnest kicking he had won all pleasant things,
And in heaven you'll find him picking out the longest pair of wings.

The Ameer deferred the execution and sent them under guard to Inkansham, where they went to work digging. They, and the men who were put to work with them, dug for 20 days, finding nothing. The Ameer's officer told them at length that they could dig for seven days more and if they did not find silver within that time the sentence of death would be carried out. The next day they came to a very rich vein of silver, and now about a hundred men are employed in the mine, which was visited last summer by an English traveler.

ON THE FLOOD TIDE

Rolls the Popularity of Grover Cleveland.

New York's Masses Rise as One Man

And Cheer to the Echo the Ex-President.

Rousing Meeting Held in Cooper Union.

Speeches by Leading Men in the Empire State—Resolutions Adopted Which Will be Factors in the Coming National Campaign.

New York, Feb. 12.—There was held last night in the large hall of the Cooper Union a mass meeting of democrats to protest against holding the democratic state convention for the election of delegates to the national convention on February 22, after only four weeks' notice.

It is this convention which has been denominated as "Senator Hill's snap convention," and the meeting last night was promoted largely by the adherents of ex-President Cleveland.

They assert that the call for a convention in February was a measure designed to suppress expressions and representation in favor of their favorite, and the demonstration to-night was designed to publicly voice their protest.

Among those who signed the call were Frederick R. Coudert, ex-Mayor Daniel F. Tiemann, Oswald Otendorfer, E. Ellery Anderson, Charles J. Canda, Orlando B. Potter, ex-Mayor William R. Grace, ex-Mayor Edward Cooper, Everett Wheeler, Wm. E. Curtis, Eugene Kelly, Jr., ex-Justice Charles P. Daly, ex-Mayor Abram S. Hewitt, Henry G. Marquand, Clifford A. Hand, Henry R. Beekman, ex-United States District Attorney Stephen A. Walker and ex-Secretary of the Treasury Charles S. Fairchild.

Long before 8 o'clock, the hour set for opening the meeting, every seat and every available inch of standing room in the historic hall was occupied, and many of those who were tardy in seeking entrance were unable to get in. Chairs filled the large platform and these also were occupied early.

Called to Order.

From 7:30 to 8 o'clock Gilmore's band entertained the large audience with musical selections, and then Oswald Ottendorfer, editor and proprietor of the New York Staats Zeitung, stepped forward to the speaker's stand and called the meeting to order. When the hearty applause with which he was received had subsided sufficiently to permit his voice to be heard, he said in part:

"You prove by your presence here, that you feel deeply the indignity and the insult cast upon you by the attempt to be represented in the democratic national convention by delegates nominated through maneuvers and schemes arranged in mid-winter, without consulting or giving an opportunity to express the views and wishes of the democratic masses in relation to questions which influence materially our welfare and the future of our common country. It is intended to treat you as a mass of unruly children whose opinion is not worth while to be listened to, and who have nothing to do but to comply implicitly with the command of their preceptors.

"The whole proceeding of the democratic state committee is as provoking as it is uncalled for, and its only explanation is that it is well adapted to promote the schemes of some intriguing politicians who have reason to avoid the open day, and to try to secure a snap judgment by which they can pretend to represent the democracy of the Empire state. It is not for the promotion of the ambition of this or that man, or for the realization of this or that clique, but for the triumph for the principles in the defense of which the democracy of the United States have achieved their victories during the last two years, that we enter our protest against the appointment of delegates from this state by the convention to be held at Albany on February 22.

"The members of the democratic state committee have made a fearful mistake, and a mistake in such a matter is worse than a crime. Seeing the results of their error, I hope they will retrace their steps and adopt measures in accordance with the requirements of fairness and justice. If not, then they have to take the responsibility for the disastrous consequences that may follow their unwise and inconsiderate action."

President Coudert.

Mr. Ottendorfer then presented Frederic Coudert as the president of the meeting, and as the well known lawyer advanced to the desk he was greeted with rousing cheers. Addressing the great throng, and in speaking of the object of the meeting, Mr. Coudert said it was not to denounce or glorify any human being, but something more important. "It is the assertion of the right of which men in authority are seeking to deprive us. It is the right to express our opinion and manifest our will upon every subject of public and political concern. To curtail speech has been in our catechism the worst offense that could be committed against liberty."

Then said he: "The great mass of us are loyal to the party and faithful to its rules. I for one do not know among the men who have been named as candidates a single man in the democratic party whom I would not prefer to vote for to any man in the republican ranks. The most dangerous rebellions are those which are based on resentment against violations of sound principles.

"Men, good or bad pass away, and movements founded upon adherence to or distrust of them or their methods cannot live forever. A sound principle cannot die, it is immortal."

In naming objections to the call for a convention on the 22d inst., he said: "In the first place, I would say that every departure from usage and custom requires an explanation on the part of those who make the departure to those who are interested in the subject. Customs are the law. To violate the law is a crime. The burden is upon those whose conduct is questioned, and not upon those who object. We therefore are in the right, and may insist upon receiving a valid explanation. With us custom is king. It rules judges and courts and parties and commerce, and we can scarcely be deemed bold if we say, 'Show us your warrant to violate this law.' The precedents of a quarter of a century have established a uniform rule. Why have you changed it? If you have a good reason produce it.

"We do not deny the importance of organization. A large amount of authority and power must be allowed to those who are entrusted with the execution of the party's wishes. These men who are called the leaders must bear in mind that they are trustees and agents, not autocrats and principals; that they cannot substitute their will to that of the mass of their political brethren. I am making no objections to so-called 'bosses' and so-called 'machines,' if bosses are merely leaders, faithful to their duties they are necessary in politics as in war, and calling them bad names does not change the situation or belittle their power. It may be said that there was power enough in the leaders to fix such dates as they might deem expedient for the holding of the convention. In a certain measure this is true, but when that power was conferred upon them it was with certain reservations; the reservation first of good faith. Has this been done in good faith? It was intended that ordinary usages should be followed; it was intended that all democrats should have an opportunity to register their voices. It was not intended to cut off thousands of men without regard to right, in order to serve a purpose. It may be that no purpose exists.

"But there is one thing which we need not be politicians to understand. That is that no great party can afford to place its members in such a strait that loyalty to party and self-respect cannot exist."

Mr. Coudert was interrupted by frequent applause and laughter, though it was noticeable that nearly all the applause came from the front section of the hall containing about one-half the audience. Those who applauded did so enthusiastically, but fully one-half the audience, mainly those in the rear seats or those standing in the aisles, maintained the attitude of spectators who listened. Some one shouted "Three cheers for Grover Cleveland." There was a good response, followed by scattering hisses. The experiment was not tried again.

At the conclusion of Mr. Coudert's speech a list of vice presidents and secretaries, containing a selection of about 300 names from those attached to the call for the meeting was read.

Ex-United States District Attorney Walker then offered the following resolutions, which were warmly applauded. When Chairman Coudert called for the yeas and nays, the resolutions were adopted with practical unanimity, only a few scattering noes, less than a dozen in all, being heard when the chairman called for them.

The Resolutions.

Resolved, That this assembly of democrats of the city of New York now makes its respectful protest and appeal against the uncalled-for and ill-advised action of the state committee in designating so early a date as the 22d of February for the meeting of the state committee—a convention which is to elect delegates to the national convention appointed to be held at Chicago, on June 21, 1892.

"Resolved, That the right of the voters of a political party to assemble at the call of the leaders who are its express representatives and servants to carry out its will in regard to the details of party management should not be curtailed in time, place, or circumstance, in such a way as to limit or embarrass a genuine expression of popular party feeling on the question in hand.

"That such expression should be made in party assemblies, upon subjects to be presently decided, at as near a time to that wherein decision is reached as can be reasonably and conveniently appointed.

'Delegates should be fresh from the people. No body of men elected to express the will of voters assembled in party convention should be, for an unreasonable time, custodians of the voter's right or hold their delegated powers for a period longer than is absolutely necessary for the purpose. The people are justified in resenting any action on the part of the party leaders whereby their voices shall be suppressed or perverted.

"Resolved, That the history of contests upon national issues in the state of New York since 1856 shows that too much prudence cannot be exercised, nor are too much labor and enthusiasm possible in the effort to carry the state of New York for the democratic party. The record of success is confined to three out of nine most recent canvasses. We have met and every time must meet an arrogant and unscrupulous adversary. The area of contest is our whole imperial domain. In such a strife success does not go to numbers only. It rests upon unity and fidelity in every county to the interests and principles of the voters as declared in party platforms, which have been the basis of successful contests, and it is absolutely necessary in every campaign that no just grievances of the people, from the conduct of party managers, should produce lukewarmness or hesitation anywhere in the great army of democratic voters. They are a body of volunteers and not of soldiers, and must be taken into the confidence of their leaders in the early stages of the fight. Leadership need not and should not involve duress.

"Resolved, That the state committee holds its function and political powers in trust for the welfare of the party. Its action in calling the state convention for the 22d of February and thereby forcing the holding of primaries on brief notice is contrary to party usage and irregular. It denies to the democratic electors of this state a full, fair and effective exercise of their right to be represented in caucuses, primaries and district and state conventions. This action is a grave violation of the political duties of the committee which cannot but expose the party to needless danger in the election next November.

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions over the name of the president of this meeting be sent to the several members of the state committee and that a committee of 50, with power to add to its number, be appointed by the chairman of this meeting to communicate with the members of the democratic state committee and respectfully protest against their action in designating the date already fixed for the state convention, and that they be urged to reconsider such action and revoke their call; and, if that is not done, that the committee hereby created exercise such further powers and take such other action as may secure a proper representation of the people of the state in the national convention of the party, and as may seem proper and in accordance with the spirit of these resolutions."

A telegram was read from W. Ryan, of the democratic state committee of Richmond, Va., and others.

A telegram of commendation was received from the state of Alabama, which was as follows:

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 11.—To Frederic Coudert, chairman:

Montgomery Cleveland Democratic Club; 500 members express to the mass meeting at Cooper Union, cordial endorsement of its object and protest against action of New York state committee as unjust, throughout the union.

GEORGE W. CRAIK.

Cleveland Enthusiasm.

The next speaker was John G. Milburn, of Erie county. He declared for sending a delegation to Chicago to come right from the heart of the people, ("and for Grover Cleveland" shouted a voice amid cheers), strong for genuine tariff reform, for a sound currency, an administration conducted on business principles and for the nomination of a high minded democrat who is such in deeds and not in words alone.

It was during this speech that the latent enthusiasm for Grover Cleveland was brought out. Yells went up as from one throat. Hats were waved and umbrellas flourished wildly.

"Gover Cleveland" went up the cry.

"What's the matter with Grover?"

"He's all right," came the response.

Mr. William A. Beach, of Syracuse, next spoke and referred to the calling of a winter convention as "a gross and damnable outrage."

Mr. E. Ellery Anderson, one of the leaders in the meeting of protest, set forth that Mr. Cleveland stood emphatically for tariff reform and against free coinage of silver, while Mr. Hill practically favored silver legislation.

"No good reason has been assigned by any member of the committee or any of its defenders for its extraordinary action, and no reason can be assigned for it except that it was intended to advance the fortunes and ambitions of David B. Hill."

Ex-Secretary of the Treasury Charles S. Fairchild said: "We who have been active in this movement and will continue to be active therein until the end thereof have only done our simple duty toward a party and a cause we love.

"We believe that both our party and our principles are in peril. We believe that great numbers of democrats, both in state and nation feel this peril and therefore that we would be cravens and cowards did we not do our utmost to give an outlet to the deep feeling which we know to exist and which has been repressed by every device known to official power and party machinery."

The meeting closed with rattling cheers for Grover Cleveland.

SHOULD FOLLOW CLEVELAND.

Maryland Democrats Declare that Grover Is the Leader.

Annapolis, Md., Feb. 12.—By a vote of 78 to 3 the house of delegates adopted, with an amendment in the form of an added resolution to the resolution introduced by Mr. Laird of Montgomery county a week ago, expressing as the sense of the house of delegates that the national house of congress should act upon the tariff question in harmony with "the broad lines" marked out by President Cleveland's message of 1887 and the Mills bill.

The added resolution was as follows:

"And, be it further resolved that in dealing with the tariff reform this house has entire confidence in the judgment and ability of the senators and representatives in congress from Maryland, whose views are known to be in accord with the true democratic sentiment of their country."

The amendment was offered by Mr. Sims, a member of the house of delegates from the city of Baltimore.

Children's Hour

A PRINCE OF NEWFOUNDLAND.

The shower had ceased, but the city street
Was flooded still with drenching rain,
Though men and horses with hurrying feet
Swept on their busy ways again.

The gutter ran like a river deep;
By the clean-washed pavement fast it rushed,
As out of the spouts with a dash and a leap
The singing, sparkling water gushed.

A little kitten with ribbon blue
Crossed over the way to the gutter's brink;
With many a wistful, plaintive mew,
She seemed at the edge to shudder and shrink.

And there she stood while her piteous cries
Were all unheard by the heedless throng,
Looking across with such longing eyes;
But the torrent was all too swift and strong.

Up the street, o'er the pavements wide,
Wandered our Prince from Newfoundland,
Stately and careless and dignified,
Gazing about him on either hand.

The sun shone out on his glossy coat,
And his beautiful eyes, soft and brown,
With quiet, observant glance took note
Of all that was passing him, up and down.

He heard the kitten that wailed and mewed,
Stopped to look and investigate,
The whole situation understood,
And went at once to the rescue straight.

Calmly out into the street walked he,
Up to the poor little trembling waif,
Lifted her gently and carefully,
And carried her over the water safe.

And set her down on the longed-for shore,
Licked her soft coat with a kind caress,
Left her and went on his way once more,
The picture of noble thoughtfulness.

Only a dog and cat, you say?
Could a human being understand
And be more kind in a human way
Than this fine old Prince of Newfoundland?

O children dear, 'tis a lesson sweet;
If a poor dumb dog so wise can be,
We should be gentle enough to treat
All creatures with kindness and courtesy.

For surely amongst us there is not one
Who such an example could withstand;
Who would wish in goodness to be outdone
By a princely dog from Newfoundland?

—Celia Thaxter, in Harper's Young People.

THE FOUNDLING.

By Mrs. Blacque Wilson.

Ugh! how the wind did blow and how the rain did pour down one fearful night, two centuries ago. It was in the great city of Paris, and her wide streets looked dreary enough through the blinding rain. A poor woman was struggling along, hugging a tiny babe to her breast and vainly trying to keep it warm with her tattered shawl. She was desperate, helpless and starving and was now on her way to leave her baby, her darling little daughter to the tender care of the good nuns at Notre Dame. Bravely she struggled on towards the warm and cheerful light that was streaming from the windows of the huge pile of buildings before her. Reaching the entrance at last she carefully wrapped the little Annette in the old shawl and laid the precious bundle on the steps.

Reaching to the door she gave several sharp, loud raps upon it, then with a smothered moan turned and ran down the deserted street. Poor woman! her heart was breaking, yet she dare not remain, for she feared the nuns would compel her to take her child away again, and that she could not do. She was poor and sick, and her husband had cruelly deserted her. She knew that little Annette would have a good home here and find kind hearts to love and care for her, but she felt that she must give her up.

"What was that?" exclaimed Sister Anastasia. "Surely I heard a knocking at the door. Run, Marie, and see who can be there."

"Bless me, what is this?" she exclaimed again as Marie returned bearing the strange burden. "Another waif? Let's see the little dear."

As she unrolled the ragged shawl Annette opened both eyes and mouth, crying so loudly that Marie went scurrying away for a nursing bottle filled with nice warm milk. Soon the babe was fast asleep, warm and cosy in a snug little nest drawn close to Sister Anastasia's watchful hand.

A black rosary found around the baby's neck, marked with the initials "B. L." and "XXX." was carefully laid away, for some day it might help the little wanderer to find the parents who had given up their claims upon her.

Four years passed away and little Annette had become the pet of the convent. She was a beautiful child, with short, black curls, snapping black eyes, rosy cheeks and lips. Her heart was as light and her nature as happy as though she were a princess instead of a pauper.

Indeed, she was often happier than the little golden-haired princess who so often came with her royal mamma and numerous servants to visit the gentle Sisters of Notre Dame. She often longed to become acquainted with the "pretty little princess," as she called her, and one happy day they were allowed one short half hour of play together.

Their baby friendship, thus formed, grew into warm love as time rolled on, until at last the foundling Annette was taken to the royal palace to be maid-of-honor to the young princess. Her love for her young mistress was only superior to the affection she held for the gracious queen, who felt that in Annette she had found not only a pure and worthy companion for her precious daughter but also a true and trusty friend to herself; almost the only one she could name, for she was completely surrounded by cunning and wicked enemies.

The girls continued to be companions till they had reached the ages of 11 and 12, when one terrible summer, the gentle princess was stricken down. Almost before the queen had time to realize that her idol was ill, death had claimed her for his own, leaving the royal mother and faithful Annette to comfort each other as best they might.

And truly did Annette strive to console the lonely woman who was envied by many as the queen of France, and often did she long for some opportunity to prove her loyalty to her. Poor girl, her opportunity came sooner than she expected.

One evening, about a year after the death of the princess, Annette was hurrying along a dark corridor on an errand for the queen, when suddenly she heard voices in an adjoining room, in hot dispute. Stopping impulsively for but a moment, she heard a sentence that put all her senses on the alert at once, for well she knew the danger that constantly surrounded her beloved mistress.

"Procure those stones for me," she heard the crafty courtier say, "and soon my revenge upon the queen will be complete."

Peering through the crack of the slightly opened door she saw that the speaker was none other than the great Cardinal Richelieu himself, who acted as "mediator" between the king and queen.

"Yes, but my reward," responded the voice of his companion, which Annette at once recognized as belonging to one of the very few women whom the queen regarded as trustworthy and loyal to herself. "The jewels are safely locked in their casket and the queen's cabinet is sacred against the intrusion of even Richelieu himself. The danger is great, let the reward be likewise," went on the woman.

Annette waited to hear no more, but fled on her errand almost in despair. Full well she knew what jewels were wanted by the traitor, for the loss of none but those the king had given to his bride on their wedding day, could "ruin the queen." All others she might bestow upon whom she pleased without question, but those she must value as her life.

And truly she did. No hands but hers ever touched them, she alone always laid them in their dainty casket and placed them in her cabinet, securely locked as she thought.

Annette was in despair. She knew that she could not gain an audience with the queen in private for some time, for she was now with the king. The cabinet was locked as she well knew and she, alas! had no duplicate keys as did the foul conspirators whom she was determined to thwart. She hid herself near the entrance to the cabinet and waited impatiently. Soon a quiet figure came up to the door, unlocked it and passed in, leaving it slightly ajar. The little Annette glided in behind her unnoticed and slipped behind a large dressing case. She watched the woman search closely first one jewel case and then another until she at last selected the one containing the twelve precious diamonds. Quickly unlocking the casket she snatched two of the stones from their setting and hastily relocked the casket.

"No," Annette heard her mutter, "I'll leave it unlocked. 'Twill never be noticed in so short a time and 'twill then be easier for him to get the other ten." She immediately left the room, leaving that lock also unturned. Quick as a flash Annette seized the other precious stones and fled to her own apartments. Here she stopped, girl-like to have "a good cry," and tried to think what she should do. She felt that now she understood the plan of the conspirators. To produce two of the stones before the king and then to find the other ten in the possession of some favorite and so prove to her jealous husband that his wife had given away his bridal gift of jewels.

Brave little Annette resolved to thwart them. Secreting her precious trust she prepared herself to enter the presence of the king and queen. She noticed her black rosary lying on her dressing table and carelessly placed it around her neck. Passing down to the court she arrived just in time to see the cardinal present the king with the stolen diamonds and heard him charge the queen with treason for having given the king's gift to a certain favorite of hers and avow that the other ten stones might be found in the possession of this same favorite. The king angrily demanded an explanation from his fair queen, who, taken entirely by surprise, was at a loss for words.

Frantic search was hastily made in the cabinet, but in vain; but at last Annette saw her opportunity. Stepping quickly forward she handed the necklace to the king, humbly saying, "Are these the jewels sought for?" Then, rising, she pointed an accusing finger at the woman near her and said, "I saw her take the other two stones from their setting in the casket not two hours ago." The woman made a denial but mingled with the look of rage on her face was also one of amazement. With a cry she grasped the black rosary from Annette's neck and scanned the initials upon it and exclaimed, "My child! my child!"

Yes, she was indeed her child, for both mother and daughter, by strange chance, had been taken into the service of the queen, one to act as her greatest enemy, the other as her truest friend. One was soon hidden behind convent walls to there repent of her treachery, the other continued to love and serve her beautiful mistress and was fondly loved by her in return. In the foundling, whom she had befriended, Anne of Austria found a loving, trusting heart, worthy confidante and a daughter's love and devotion to supply the place of her own long lost idol.

Tommy's Dogs.

Tommy Brown was a little boy who had three new dogs—"bran new," Tommy said, when he saw them for the first time.

They lay all together in a tiny basket, and they looked very small and very innocent and very quiet. Tommy talked to them a good deal, but they did not even open their eyes, which Tommy thought was rude of them, at least.

The mother of these little dogs was a very large dog, indeed, and she seemed to admire them almost as much as Tommy did. She did not want others to come near the basket where they lay, and when Tommy and his brother were playing horse she looked as if she wished such noisy boys would go outdoors, where they belonged.

But one day a dreadful thing happened. When Tommy went to the basket to look at the puppies one of them was gone. Instead of three there were only two. Tommy didn't know what to think until he heard his mamma say that one of the puppies was given to a neighbor. He did not know at the time what neighbor it was, but he found out afterwards that it was the fat boy baby who lived across the street.

Do you believe it?—in less than a week another puppy was gone to another neighbor. Tommy saw her playing with it at the window. She was a little girl with blue eyes and yellow curls.

It was not long before the third and last puppy was given away and the little basket was empty.

But Tommy doesn't mind it, and neither does the big dog. They both go to call on the neighbors often, and when they see the little dogs playing happily with the children they do not feel sad when they think of the empty basket.

BEE HIVE.

Greeting.

Dear Young Friends—It is with much pleasure that I am again enabled to address you, and I hope we may be close acquaintances from now on. Owing to reasons that are liable to occur any time in a newspaper office, the Children's Hour has not been printed for several months.

Yet do not think that the editor had forgotten his young friends, for he had not, and I have often longed to see you all again.

The Children's Column will now appear each week, and it will be made better than ever.

There will be plenty of new stories, games and puzzles, and the Bee Hive will be made a special feature. Numerous prizes will soon be offered for stories and puzzles, and you should all watch for them.

All of the boys and girls who read the Bee are invited to write letters to the Bee Hive, and they will all be printed. I would like to hear from every one of you, and let the other boys and girls know what you are doing.

Puzzlers are also invited to send contributions.

Several good letters are printed this week, and the writers are invited to call again. Address your letters to Peter Buzzer, care of Bee, Toledo, Ohio.

Now I hope to soon hear from all of my old friends and my new ones and expect to learn many interesting things about you.

Ever Your Friend,
PETER BUZZER.

Your Wish is Answered.

Dear Mr. Buzzer: I wish that you would print the Children's Hour again. I am so sorry that it has stopped as I miss it very much. I like to read the good stories and the letters from the other boys and girls. It is lots of fun to have your letters printed in a newspaper and I am always glad to see mine in print.

I think that all the boys and girls should write to you. I also send you some puzzles, which you can use. Hoping to soon see you in the Bee again, I remain, Yours, JAY K.

A Happy Girl.

Mr. Buzzer: My father owns a large farm about a mile from Lakeville. Lakeville is on the opposite side of the Wonoscopomac, which is a very pretty lake. On the other side of our farm is the Wonoscopounce; it is not such a pretty lake, but it has nice fishing grounds. The lakes are about a half-mile apart, and as father's land reaches to both lakes, we can have all the fishing and boating we like. We have horses, cows, sheep pigs, and chickens. We have no dog, but I have a large tiger cat, which we think a great deal of. We had snow here about a month ago. My brother plays on the violin, and I am studying the piano. I hope to play with him soon. I have a little sorrel colt. Will you please tell me a pretty name for her? We live about a quarter of a mile from where there is being erected a large college, to prepare young men for Yale.

Connecticut. MARY BUSHNELL.

A Little Canadian.

Dear Peter Buzzer: I am a little girl eight years old. My papa takes the Bee and I like to read the letters and stories in the Children's Hour. I live in Canada where we have lots of snow and ice in the winter. I love to skate and go tobogganing. If you will print my letter, Mr. Buzzer, I will write again sometime.

Your little friend,
CLARIBEL M.

Toronto, Canada.

A Snow Fight.

Dear Peter: My home is on a farm near the city of Dayton. I am a ten-year-old boy and have two brothers, one eight and the other twelve. We have great fun together. The snow came down fast to-day and as it was quite soft we made it into large blocks and built a fort. Then we made some snow soldiers for sentinels and had a fight. The other side stormed our fort and captured it and made us prisoners of war.

I must close now.

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Margaret Mather in a Clever Double Comedy Bill.

Successful Presentation of Nance Oldfield and the Love Chase —Alabama.

A delightful comedy bill was presented at Wheeler's last evening by Margaret Mather and her excellent company. James Sheridan Knowles' three-act comedy was preceded by a clever one-act bit of comedy entitled Nance Oldfield, with Miss Mather in the title role, and the other participants being Josephine Eytinge, H. A. Langdon and White Whittlesey. In this Miss Mather had an opportunity to display her talent in all sorts of acting, from light comedy to heavy tragedy, and she seemed perfect in every emotion.

As Constance in the Love Chase, Miss Mather appeared at her best as the self-willed daughter of an indulgent father, and Otis Skinner as Wildrake was not behind her in point of ability. The entire support was excellent, and the approval of the audience was manifested by the generous applause which the performance received.

The audience was a fashionable one, and every seat in the house was filled. Toledo theater goers fully appreciate high class comedy, and when those clever bits of nonsense are presented by able people an audience is never wanting.

Alabama.

The third act in Alabama, Augustus Thomas' sweet toned romance of the south, is said to be "as exquisite an idyll, a breath of as pure and delicate poetry, as has been given on the stage in a generation. The scene is the war shattered gateway of the Preston plantation; one massive granite pillar has fallen across the cannon that wrought its overthrow, and both are overgrown with friendly vine and blossom.

The night is flooded with the still, mysterious radiance of the southern moon. The fire flies flash above the sluggish stillness of the bayou, glimpsed through the moss draped trees. From far, and faintly, like the ineffable, tender melancholy of the southern night grown articulate, comes the chant of the negro boatmen; and there steals out to us from the scene soft, heavy waftings of the sweetness of magnolia flowers."

The piece will be presented at Wheeler's next Monday evening.

The Harmonic Society's Concert.

Considerable interest is manifest in Toledo musical circles relative to the concert next Wednesday evening, to be given by the Toledo Harmonic society. The members have been rehearsing for some time, and a rare treat may be expected. The soloists are too well known to need introduction to a Toledo audience. It is hoped the efforts of the organization will be appreciated by our citizens.

SQUAWS USE THEIR KNIVES.

A Bloody Battle Fought on Pokegama Creek.

Pine City, Minn., Feb. 12.—There has occurred on the banks of Pokegama creek, about seven miles from this place, one of the bloodiest battles ever waged between redskins.

A group of wigwams on the creek forms a small colony. From some unknown source the squaws procured a large quantity of alcohol and indulged in a spree.

Two of them became quarrelsome. The dispute terminated by the younger woman drawing from her waist a butcher knife and attacking her companion, who tried to defend herself with a similar weapon.

The battle was a short and decisive one, resulting in the disappearance of the older participant, whose strength failed. "Oet-Wan-A To," a young Indian and a companion, were witnesses of the fight. No trace of either of the combatants can be found, but it is supposed they are being cared for by their friends. "Oet-Wan-A-To" says the old squaw could not live over an hour.

FROM THE MAPLE CITY.

Contractor Carpenter Badly Cut by Plate Glass.

Settling Up a Bank's Troubles—Funeral of Clare Loomis—General Social Mention.

Norwalk, O., Feb. 12.—(Special)—The funeral of Clare Loomis, son of F. R. Loomis, editor of the Chronicle, who died with typhoid fever, was held yesterday and was largely attended.

W. G. Carpenter, the well-known builder and contractor, met with a painful accident yesterday. He was superintending the replacing of a plate glass window. The old cracked one was taken out safely and placed on the floor up against the wall when the crack extended and a large piece fell on Mr. Carpenter's leg, cutting an ugly gash several inches in length and one and one-half inches in depth.

R. K. Rood, receiver in the case of N. A. Barnes et al. v. the old Bellevue bank, was paid yesterday by T. C. Wood, executor of the estate of the late Bourdette Wood, the sum of $21,597.08.

The judgment against the solvent stockholders of the bank amounted to $50,922, of which Bourdette Wood was adjudged to pay $21,250, which, with interest, made up the amount paid to Mr. Rood.

A. A. Stagg, the famous Yale athlete and pitcher, will be in Norwalk Wednesday evening and deliver his celebrated lecture for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A.

The Norwalk band will give the second of a series of concerts on Friday evening, February 12.

The Huron county prohibitionists will hold their convention next Tuesday to select delegates to their state convention.

The remains of the late Dr. Chas. Morrill, father of Dr. Ed C. Morrill of this city, reached here from Cleveland Tuesday, and were buried yesterday at Woodlawn.

Crushed to Death.

Frank Howell, whose home was in Fremont, brakeman on the Lake Shore road, was killed this morning at 2 o'clock at Collins.

He was engaged in coupling cars, and it is supposed he fell on the slippery track. The wheels of the locomotive passed over him, crushing him to a pulp from the middle of the body down.

The young man was 23 years of age. His mother lives at Fremont. The body was brought to Norwalk this morning at 3 o'clock.

Howell was a member of the Brotherhood of Trainmen in good standing, and had on his person a gold watch and chain given him by his mother last Christmas; also a photograph and letters from Miss L. Wolff, Fremont. He was formerly a brakeman on the Wheeling & Lake Erie road.

THE TEMPTATION

To go out doors in rough weather is not strong, but we are, many of us, compelled to face rough weather frequently. Diseases which arise from a chill are peculiar to no season of the year. This is true, therefore there should be in the closet of every household—what? Not an unmedicated stimulant, absolutely devoid of anything but an excitive action, but a tonic combining, in the effective form of an invigorant and an alterative, the quality of defence against changes of weather. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has three or four properties that no other article of its class possesses. Not only does it relieve the complaints which it eventually cures, it fortifies the system against the bad effects of changes of temperature, fatally and too often shown in the deadly form of "la grippe;" it produces a radical change in the weakened condition of a system peculiarly liable to be attacked by it, and it tends to provide against the danger resulting from an impoverished condition of the blood and a disordered state of the liver or bowels.

HOODWINKED THE COURT.

Tommy Newton and John Prochaska,

Armed with Pads and Pencils, Palm Themselves Off as Reporters That They Might Hear Interesting Testimony.

It is peculiar what curiosity some people have in matters that don't concern them at all—matters, in fact that half the people don't know the first thing about. In some cases this particularly manifests itself in a morbid desire to attend funerals. There was an old lady in the city once, affected with the last named symptoms, who had an everlasting tear in her eye and was sure to turn up at every funeral just as regular as the hearse. That the microbes of this strange ailment are still floating about in the local atmosphere is made manifest by the actions of Tommy Newton and John Prochaska. They wanted to hear the testimony in the case of the Polish priest, Father Kalasinski, that has been on in the police court the past two days. The crowd of interested spectators was so large that the officers were obliged to clear the court room, that there might be space in which to conduct the proceedings.

Messrs. Newton and Prochaska went out with the rest, but their respective bumps of ingenuity were large, and they each secured a large pad of paper, armed themselves with pencils, and returned to the door of the court room where they demanded entrance as newspaper reporters. They held their pads and pencils under the official nose of the officer in charge of the entrance, and convincing him of their genuineness were admitted. They sat down and scribbled off page after page of testimony to keep up the illusion, while the bona fide newspaper men sat back in their chairs and enjoyed the joke.

ENTIRELY SATISFACTORY.

W. J. Arkell, publisher of Judge and Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, writes:

"About three weeks since, while suffering from a severe cold which had settled on my chest, I applied an Allcock's Porous Plaster, and in a short time obtained relief.

"In my opinion, these plasters should be in every household, for use in case of coughs, colds, sprains, bruises, or pains of any kind. I know that in my case the results have been entirely satisfactory and beneficial."

A FORSAKEN WIFE.

Cincinnati, Feb. 12.—At the Palace hotel a girl, who said her maiden name was Cora Shepard and that her parents lived at Indianapolis, raised the cry that her husband had deserted her. She says that she married him in Montana and that his name was H. J. Harrison. He registered at the hotel last Saturday night as H. Mortimere and wife. The forsaken wife went to Indianapolis.

A GRATEFUL MOTHER.

Her Son's Loathsome Disease Removed.

Boy Only Twelve Years Old--Chronic Catarrh---Great Discharge From Nose and Throat.

All's Well That Ends Well.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Dec. 4, 1891.

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.—Gentlemen: It is with great pleasure that I write of the benefit derived from your remedy, Pe-ru-na. My little boy, about 12 years old, has always been troubled with catarrh very bad several years, and I had great fears of his going into consumption. He had a bad cough that I could not check, and his head was in a terrible condition. His head discharged so much for years that it was a charge on my mind to keep him supplied with handkerchiefs. I had to use every rag that I could get at hand. It was astonishing how he could discharge so much from his nose. I commenced to give him Pe-ru-na about a month ago, and the discharge from his head is entirely stopped, and also his cough. He now does not have to use a handkerchief at all. The Pe-ru-na seems to act like magic in his case. I feel as if I can not find words to express my gratitude for the medicine; but I do regret that I never tried it before. I thought there was no cure for him, and had given up trying to have him cured; but when I saw the disease so thoroughly explained in the paper by Dr. Hartman I thought I would try his medicine. I never will be without Pe-ru-na in the house, and I will recommend it to all my friends.

Very sincerely yours,
MRS. A. E. ACKERMAN,
E. Grand Ave., Chippewa Falls, Wis.

Pe-ru-na as a Family Medicine.

Used according to the directions, Pe-ru-na will secure the family against catarrh, colds, coughs, pneumonia, pleurisy, bronchitis, and consumption. It is a fact of ever-increasing astonishment that so many otherwise sensible and provident people will, for the neglect of so simple a precaution as to have a bottle of Pe-ru-na at hand, bring upon themselves the needless suffering and foolish expense that a professional man is forced to witness every day.

A cold in the head, which a single bottle of Pe-ru-na will cure, soon becomes a case of chronic catarrh, which will require many bottles to entirely cure. A sore throat, which one bottle of Pe-ru-na will cure, soon becomes chronic pharyngitis or enlarged tonsils, which will require many bottles. A slight cough, which, without a vestige of doubt, would soon disappear with the use of Pe-ru-na, becomes chronic bronchitis, which requires a persistent use of Pe-ru-na for some time. Every practicing physician sees many cases of consumption each year due directly to a neglect of coughs, colds, etc., which, if Pe-ru-na had been kept in the house, and used according to directions, would have been prevented.

In no other department of domestic arrangements is there such stupendous disregard of the welfare of the family as in guarding against the common ills of life by the use of effective and reliable family remedies. If the following advice could reach every household in the land, and with such eloquence as to win obedience, it would convey a blessing to each of a value that would be difficult to exaggerate. The advice is this: Get a bottle of Pe-ru-na, read the instructions on the bottle until they are thoroughly understood, do exactly as they direct, and no catarrh, cold, cough, sore throat, bronchitis, pleurisy, pneumonia, or any other climatic disease will disturb the peace of the household so long as this is continued. To have this remedy at hand before the attack comes, to become intelligent as to its use, is only the most common foresight used in all other departments of ordinary business.

Send to The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing company of Columbus, Ohio, for a free pamphlet on the treatment of catarrh, la grippe, coughs, colds, consumption, and all the climatic diseases of winter.

OHIO BEEKEEPERS.

They Think a Bounty Should Be Placed on Honey.

Cincinnati, Feb. 11.—The Ohio State Beekeepers' association opened a three days' session at Turner hall, on Freeman avenue, yesterday.

The feature to-day will be the discussion of the bounty question. The beekeepers claim that they have as much right to a bounty on their honey as the sugar growers, and it is proposed to start a red-hot agitation all along the line in that direction.

COUNCIL COMMITTEES.

Some Protests Against Sewer Assessments.

New Sewers—Street Improvements—Other Legislation Started.

Several council committees met last evening, but the business transacted was not of great volume, though it did take some time to transact.

A protest was presented to the sewer committee against the confirmation of the assessment for the sewer north of Vance street from Ewing to Hawley. A number of the property owners along the sewer were present and supported their protests with statements that the assessment is unequal and unjust. After some discussion the assessment was referred to a new assessing committee.

Another protest was presented against the assessment for the sewer in Wisconsin street from Junction avenue to Brown avenue. After a brief discussion the protest was referred to the city solicitor.

An ordinance was adopted defining the limits of sewer district No. 24 east of Sumner street.

An ordinance was approved for a new sewer in the alley between Hicks and Dorr streets from sewer 351 to Forest avenue.

Resolutions were adopted for sewers in Peck street, and in Page street and alleys.

* * *

Before the street committee a petition was presented from Emma J. Ashley, stating that she wishes to improve lot 43 at the corner of Summit and Galena streets, but as the title is in doubt she offers to the city lot 22 for a clear title. The committee approved this, and directed the clerk to advertise the petition.

Ordinances were approved to re-establish the grade of Williams street; to re-establish the grade of Beacon street; to pave Dove lane; to pave Monroe street from Bancroft street to the city line; to pave Fourteenth street from Washington to Monroe.

* * *

The plat committee approved an ordinance accepting a plat of Wheeling addition, and also accepted the dedication of lot 36 of Maddock's sub-division in East Toledo, for street purposes.

* * *

Several resolutions for new sidewalks were adopted by the sidewalk committee.

WHOSE FAULT?

I had a friend. In happy hour
We vowed, beneath the almond flower
To tread one path. There came a day—
Was the fault mine?—he missed the way
Ah, well-a-day!

I had a friend. 'Neath cloudy skies
I saw the sunshine in his eyes,
And deemed it constant. Came a night—
Was the fault mine?—the dark was light
To the eyes' night.

I had a friend. His heart was pure;
Strong was his arm, his spirit sure.
We loved, as friends do. Well-a-day!
I only know—we missed the way.
Whose fault, I pray?

THE U. E. COURSE.

To-Night's Lecture by Prof. H. C. Adams.

Trades Unions Considered as the Workingman's Solution of the Labor Problem—A Call to be on Time.

Prof. Henry Carter Adams, of Michigan university, will this evening give the fifth lecture of the University Extension course. His subject for this evening is, "Trades Unions Considered as the Workingman's Solution of the Labor Problem."

Prof. Adams, in his outline of the lecture promises to give the origin of trades unions, and discuss their power to raise wages. He will consider their ability to regulate apprenticeships, and will discuss the probability of their being the agency by which the federation of industries is to be brought about. This lecture will be of the greatest interest to all the wage earners of the city, and it is to be regretted that the High School hall is not capable of accommodating a larger audience.

Prof. Adams is the statistician of the interstate commerce commission, and necessarily spends several days of each month in Washington city. He has written the executive committee of the University Extension society that he must leave at 9 o'clock on Friday evening for Washington city and wishes the members who hold course tickets to be at the hall promptly at 7:45 p. m., as the lecture will begin at exactly that minute. The regular class after the lecture will not be held for the above reason, but all of the class are requested to hand in their papers and questions just the same, and they will be answered at the next meeting.

AN EVIL OPAL.

Foreign papers tell a story of an opal ring belonging to the late King Alphonse XII of Spain, which will be treasured by those who believe in the superstition regarding the evil effects of that stone. On his wedding day the king presented a beautiful ring to his Queen Mercedes, daughter of the Duke of Montpensier. The queen wore the ornament till her death, which occurred soon afterward. Before the burial, his majesty took the ring from his wife's finger and placed it upon that of his sister, the Infanta, Maria del Pilar. The young princess only lived a few days after receiving the ring. A third time the king took possession of the ring, and presented it to his sister-in-law, Princess Christina, the youngest daughter of the Duke of Montpensier. Three months later the princess died. The king, surprised at the history of the ring, decided to wear it himself. But he did not wear it long, as death soon claimed him also. The queen regent, after the burial of her husband, attached the ring to a golden chain and placed it upon the neck of the Virgin of Almudena, the matron saint of Madrid. Superstitious Spaniards foolishly attribute the various deaths to the ring, as a matter of course.—New York Tribune.

BACCILLI IN BLOOD.

Recent experiments as read before the last Congress of Surgeons at Berlin, leave no doubt that the true way to CLEAR THE SYSTEM OF MICROBI is through the pores of the skin. It has been found that a remedy which kills the Microbi will also destroy the life of the patient; but it has also been found that the Microbi can be forced out through the skin, and it is in this way that S.S.S. relieves the system of poison.

HAVING SUFFERED much from Contagious Blood Poison, after using half a dozen bottles of S.S.S. I was RESTORED TO PERFECT HEALTH, and all eruptive sores disappeared. You are at liberty to make any use of my statement that you wish.—J. CROSBY BYRON, 208 Third Avenue, Pittsburg, Pa.

WAS A GAY DECEIVER.

Miss Mitchell Had Many Peculiar Habits.

She Conducted a Correspondence with a Young Man Over the Name of the Murdered Girl.

Pittsburg, Feb. 12.—It has just been developed that Miss Alice Mitchell, the Memphis, Tenn., girl who murdered her friend, Freda Ward, had been carrying on a correspondence with Thomas L. Reger, a young man of this city, for six months, under the name of her victim.

Young Reger came to Pittsburg from West Virginia last spring and having plenty of time on his hands, advertised in a matrimonial paper for a young lady correspondent. Among the answers was one from Miss Mitchell who gave the name of Freda Ward. Reger never knew that he was corresponding with Miss Mitchell until after the tragedy.

The day before the murder was committed Reger answered Miss Mitchell's last letter, which had been received a few days previous. He addressed it, as usual, to Miss Freda Ward. The letter arrived on the day of the murder and was turned over to the police.

At the request of Chief of Police Davis of Memphis, Reger has sent her last letter, the only one he had preserved.

At the time Reger started to correspond with Miss Mitchell, a young east ender had made arrangements to correspond with a friend of Miss Mitchell, but his first letter to the young lady came back by way of the dead letter office.

It is thought the friend was Miss Johnson, who had assumed the name for the occasion. Reger says he never met his correspondent. The only evidence they had of each other's personal appearance was two small photographs. The one received from Miss Mitchell was about an inch square, and it is not known whether she sent her victim's photograph or her own, as Reger became frightened and destroyed it as soon as he learned of the murder.

MEZGER, THE MASSAGIST.

Of Dr. Mezger, the well-known massager, who was called from Weisbaden to attend the czarina, the Pall Mall Gazette says: "Three years he had his headquarters in Amsterdam. This is not the first time he has had a queen or even an empress for a patient. The empress of Austria, the ex-Empress Eugenie, Carmen Sylvia, and the queen of Sweden have each been through his hands. Mezger is a Dutchman. His title is genuine. His discourse before the Leyden senate 25 years ago was on the treatment of distorsio pedis by friction. 'I found him,' writes a correspondent, 'a well-built, muscular fellow. He is said to have been a butcher and then a teacher of athletics. I don't know whether he has raised prices since I met him. At one time he won credit for charging both prince and policeman a uniform 5 guilders—a guilder is 1 shilling 8 pence. For your 5 guilders you got three minutes' massage. A touch of lard is the only preparation he uses. He makes, they say, 100,000 guilders a year.'"

It Would Seem

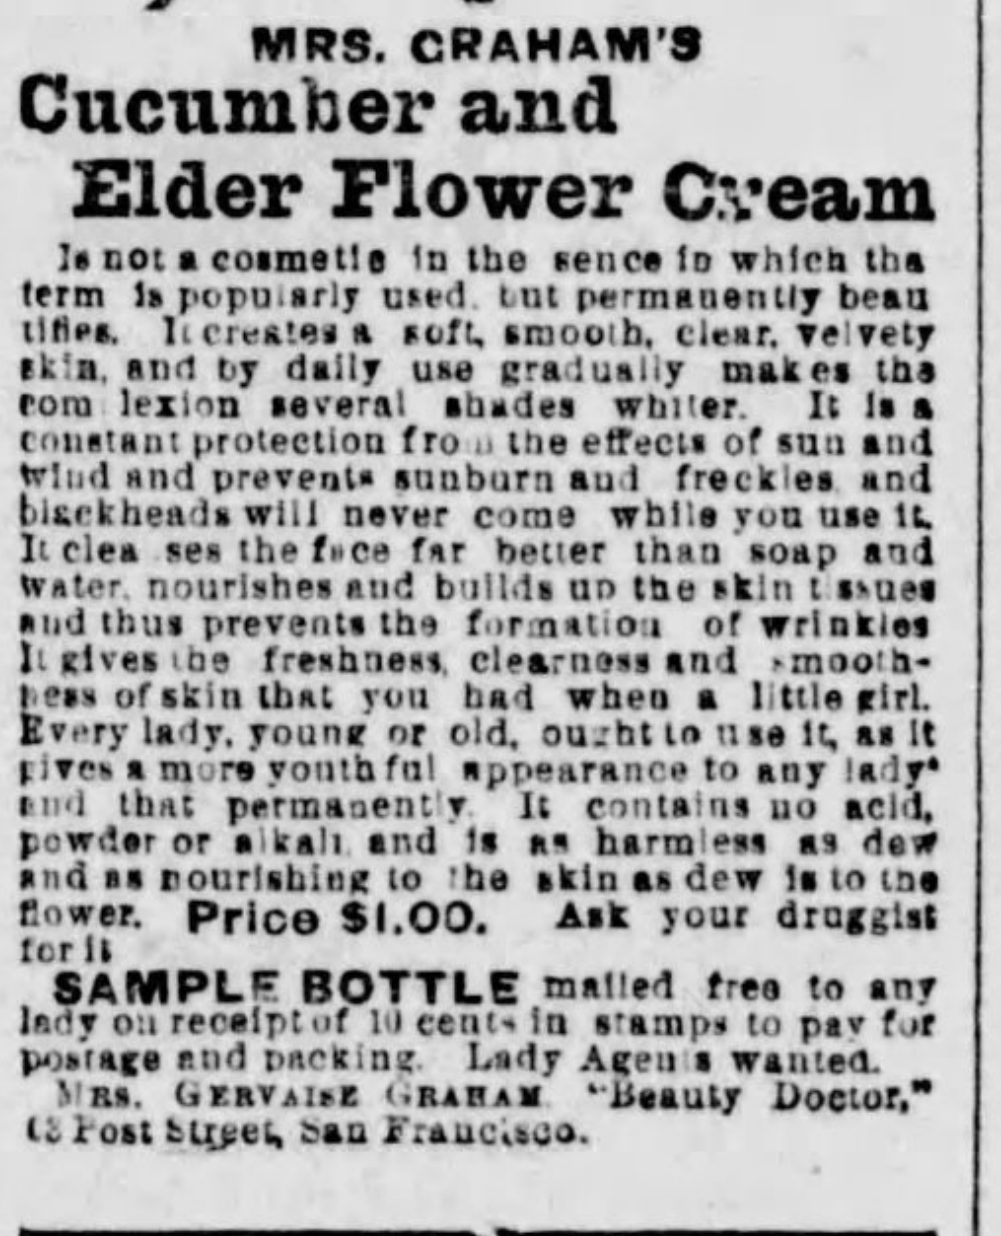
That at last a cure has been found for Bronchitis, Consumption, weak, sensitive or sore lungs. For these complaints innumerable remedies have been tried, but none heretofore have proved successful. The unrivalled success which attends the use of ROUGH ON COUGHS places it at the head of the front rank of Pulmonary remedies. Though a new remedy, cures have already been effected of cases thought beyond reach of any possible remedy. Reports of absolute cure of cases believed utterly hopeless are received daily. 50c. and $1.

Great Triumph.

The universal success of ROUGH ON COUGHS, in Consumption, Coughs, Bronchitis and Pulmonary diseases, is attracting notice throughout the country. It is without question a remarkable preparation, and though recently introduced, has given abundant evidence of peculiar efficacy in controlling Pulmonary diseases. Cures of severest forms of long standing Throat and Lung diseases reported every day. Relief is immediate and certain.

Important Discovery.

Many years have elapsed since the discovery of a remedy so important to the people as that of ROUGH ON COUGHS, a new and successful remedy in the treatment of Consumption, Bronchitis, Chronic Coughs and all Pulmonary diseases. The uniform certainty of its beneficial effects, its peculiar adaptability and specific effects upon the Throat and Lungs in disease, proves it the long-desired panacea for a class of diseases heretofore considered incurable. All sufferers are confidentially requested to give it a trial. 50c. and $1.00 bottles. At Druggists. Large size, express prepaid, on receipt of $1. E. S. WELLS, Jersey City, N. J.



MRS. GRAHAM'S

Cucumber and Elder Flower Cream

Is not a cosmetic in the sence in which the term is popularly used, but permanently beautifies. It creates a soft, smooth, clear, velvety skin, and by daily use gradually makes the complexion several shades whiter. It is a constant protection from the effects of sun and wind and prevents sunburn and freckles and blackheads will never come while you use it. It cleanses the face far better than soap and water, nourishes and builds up the skin tissues and thus prevents the formation of wrinkles. It gives the freshness, clearness and smoothness of skin that you had when a little girl. Every lady, young or old, ought to use it, as it gives a more youthful appearance to any lady and that permanently. It contains no acid, powder or alkali, and is as harmless as dew and as nourishing to the skin as dew is to the flower. Price $1.00. Ask your druggist for it.

SAMPLE BOTTLE mailed free to any lady on receipt of 10 cents in stamps to pay for postage and packing. Lady Agents wanted.

AFTER THE GRIPPE.

The Grippe Responsible for More Deaths After Recovery than During its Course—How to Avoid the Danger.

Grippe, in itself, is bad enough, debilitating enough, but it is the after effects, the slowness of recovery that give it its great danger. In most cases, the person did not have sufficient vitality to rally after the disease itself had passed. The forces of nature were too weak to contend with the debility which the Grippe had left.

It is sad to think how many people have died who might have been saved if nature had been properly assisted and fortified after the Grippe had been driven from the system. Many physicians realized this fact and assisted their patients over the dangerous after effects by bracing up and stimulating their systems. This was, and can be done in but one way, and that is by the steady and moderate use of some pure yet powerful stimulant. There is but one absolutely pure and medicinal stimulant known to the profession and to the public, and that is Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. The most prominent scientists and physicians of the land endorse its purity and value. It is not a new whiskey, it has been before the public for years. It is not a cheap decoction, but a pure distillation. It imparts a tone to the system possible in no other manner and sends the blood coursing through the veins with renewed vigor. It is superior in every respect and however much any unscrupulous druggist or grocer may seek to lead you to believe to the contrary do not be deceived.

DOCTORS FRANCE AND OTTMAN,

Formerly of New York, now the Celebrated Examining Physician of the France Medical and Surgical Institute, Columbus, Ohio, by request of many friends and patients have decided to visit Toledo.

Dr. France will visit Toledo, Wednesday, Feb 17.
Dr. Ottman will visit Toledo, Saturday, Feb. 27.

Consultation and Examination Free and Strictly Confidential in the Private Parlor of the Burnett House from 10 a. m. to 9 p. m., one day only.

The Doctors describe the different diseases better than the sick can themselves. It is a wonderful gift for any one to possess. Their diagnostic powers have created wonders throughout the country.

The France Medical and Surgical Institute of Columbus, Ohio, is the only Medical Institute in the State Incorporated with a Capital of $300,000.00.

FRANCE MEDICAL AND SURGICAL INSTITUTE,
38 & 40 W. Gay St., one block N. of State House, Columbus, O. Incorporated, 1886. Capital, $300,000.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, of New York, the well known and successful Specialists in Chronic Diseases and Diseases of the Eye and Ear, on account of their large practice in Ohio, have established the FRANCE MEDICAL INSTITUTE, where all forms of Chronic, Nervous and Private Diseases will be successfully treated on the most Scientific principles. They are ably assisted by a full corps of eminent Physicians and Surgeons, each one being a well known specialist in his profession.

CANCER positively cured without pain or use of the knife, by a new method.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—DR. FRANCE, after years of experience, has discovered the greatest cure known for all diseases peculiar to the sex. Female diseases positively cured by the new remedy, OLIVE BLOSSOM. The cure is effected by home treatment. Entirely harmless and easily applied. Consultation Free and Strictly Confidential. Correspondence promptly answered.

YOUNG MEN—Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit, which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect, may call with confidence.

DRS. FRANCE AND OTTMAN, after years of experience, have discovered the greatest cure known for weakness in the back and limbs, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, languor, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timidity, trembling, dimness of sight, or giddiness, diseases of the head, throat, nose, or skin, affections of the liver, lungs, stomach, or bowels—those terrible disorders arising from the solitary vice of youth—and secret practices, blighting their most radiant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage impossible. Take one candid thought before it is too late. A week or month may place your case beyond the reach of hope. Our method of treatment will speedily and permanently cure the most obstinate case, and absolutely restore perfect manhood.

TO MIDDLE-AGED MEN.—There are many from the age of 30 to 60 who are troubled with frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight burning or smarting sensation, weakening the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examination of the urinary deposits, a ropy sediment will be found, or the color will be a thin or milkish hue. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is a second stage of seminal weakness. We will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.

DISEASES OF WOMEN.—We have a special department, thoroughly organized, and devoted exclusively to the treatment of diseases of women. Every case consulting our specialists, whether by letter or in person, is given the most careful and considerate attention. Important cases (and we get few which have not baffled the skill of all the home physicians) have the benefit of a full council of skilled specialists. In treatment of diseases peculiar to females, our success has been marked, over two-thirds of our patients being ladies, old, young, married, single, rich and poor. Our method is entirely free from objectionable features of the general practitioner, namely, "Local treatment." We seldom find it necessary. We prepare remedies, constitutional and local, as the case demands, and instruct ladies how to treat themselves.

MARRIAGE.—Married persons, or young men contemplating marriage, aware of physical weakness, loss of procreative powers, impotency, or any other disqualification, speedily restored.

PRIVATE DISEASES.—Blood Poison, Venereal Taint, Gleet, Stricture, Seminal Emissions, Loss of Sexual Power, Weakness of Sexual Organs, Want of Desire in Male or Female, whether from imprudent habits of youth or sexual habits of mature years, or any cause that debilitates the sexual functions, speedily and permanently cured. Consultation free and strictly confidential. Absolute cures guaranteed. Medicines sent free from observation to all parts of the United States.

EPILEPSY, OR FITS—Positively cured by a new and never-failing method. Testimonials furnished.

FREE EXAMINATION OF THE URINE.—Each person applying for medical treatment should send or bring from 2 to 4 ounces of urine (that passed first in the morning preferred), which will receive a careful chemical and microscopical examination, and if requested a written analysis will be given.

Persons ruined in health by unlearned pretenders, who keep trifling with them month after month, giving poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately. Delays are dangerous.

WONDERFUL CURES Perfected in old cases which have been neglected or unskillfully treated. No experiments or failures. Parties treated by mail or express, but where possible, personal consultation is preferred. Curable cases guaranteed. No risks incurred.

☞ Cases and correspondence confidential. Treatment sent C. O. D. to any part of U. S. List of 130 questions free. Address, with postage, DR. FRANCE, Nos. 38 and 40 W. Gay St., Columbus, O.

THOROUGH ENGLISH TESTS.

High Authorities in London Investigate the Grip—Their Results Given.

London, January 31st.—The heir apparent to the English Throne has died of the grip. His Grandmother, Queen Victoria, is very sick with it and his brother, George, now the heir apparent, is quite ill also. These startling facts have aroused the highest medical skill in England to see if there is not some way by which this dreadful and dangerous disease may be checked. Searching investigation has been made by the most competent medical men and enough cases tried to prove their conclusions beyond question. Out of twenty-seven cases which came under the direct care of the examiners, nineteen were cured within three days, five within a week and the remaining three in periods ranging from ten days to two weeks. The remedy used was Dr. Acker's English remedy for coughs, colds, and consumption, which has become so popular with the people and which is now proven to be so immeasurably superior for both preventing and curing grip.

Perhaps the most remarkable thing in these tests was the fact that in no case did pneumonia develop, although in most instances there was a strong tendency in that direction. Another noticeable thing in connection with this investigation was, that twelve of the cases mentioned were women and four were children, showing conclusively that the Remedy worked equally well with either sex and regardless of age. Indeed, among the number, was one man eighty-two years old.

HE THINKS HE THINKS.

But He Doesn't—His Mind is Napping All the Time.

In private conversation one day last week one of Chicago's oldest and most learned physicians gave utterance to the following:

"Why is it that when we see a person gazing fixedly for several moments at a certain point on the floor or in the street we say he or she is thinking hard about something? Nine times in ten a person thus engaged—or rather disengaged—is thinking of nothing.

"At such moments, if you only knew it, the mind is napping and there is no thought. Probably one of the oldest fads—and it seems to be nothing more—consists of persons when at such times they are asked what they're doing, saying 'thinking hard!'

"In the large majority of cases when a person is thinking hard or intently, the eye roams from one object to another, and the hands and feet are moving more or less.

"The busiest, hardest-working brain in the country insists on taking momentary naps several times a day. Just before 'dropping off' into one of these naps the mind commands the eye to fix itself upon some one object and stay, thus usually ensuring the holding of the head and probably every part of the body quiet.

"Then the mind catches its little nap. These little mind-naps or flashes of rest may never be more than 20 seconds long, and yet they have been discovered to do the mind a wonderful amount of good.

"They never come to the deranged mind, and it has also been discovered that the supposedly sound mind which does not take them is on the verge of insanity."—Chicago Tribune.

A STRANGE STORY.

Three years ago a young lady of Fall River, Mass., was hit upon the left side of her head by a falling sign as she was walking along a street in Boston. The accident was followed by brain fever. After some weeks she was well in mind and body as ever, but from a right-handed person she had become so left-handed that she could neither cut, sew nor write with her right hand, but found it easy to do all these things with her left. Her right hand was just about as useful as her left hand had been before she was hurt. What is strange is that, with so recent a change in the use of her hands, she never makes an awkward motion, and is as graceful in the use of her left hand as if she had been born left-handed.—Boston Post.

THE WAY TO GO.

You have seen California frequently mentioned in newspapers and magazines. Perhaps a friend has been there and writes enthusiastic letters back home about the climate and the fruits. It makes you anxious to see the country for yourself.

The time to go is in the fall and winter. Then work here is least pressing and California climate is most pleasing. The way to go is via Santa Fe route, on one of that line's popular, personally-conducted parties, leaving Chicago every Saturday evening and leaving Kansas City every Sunday morning.

Special agents and porters in attendance. Pullman tourist sleepers are used, furnished with bedding, mattresses, toilet articles, etc. Second-class tickets honored. Write to Geo. E. Gilman, Michigan Passenger Agent Santa Fe route, for folder describing these excursions.

To-morrow buy that new spring dress from our big assortment. Connolly Bros.

EXCURSION TO ST. LOUIS.

On account of the national convention of labor organizations, the Wabash railway will sell excursion tickets to St. Louis and return at the very low rate of one fare for the round trip.

Tickets on sale February 20 to 23, inclusive, good returning until March 10, inclusive. For further information call on Boody House Ticket Office, or Wabash City Ticket Office, 308 Madison street.

A TRUTH FROM "TRUTH."

The New York Central is really first-class in all its appointments. Think of it, it has four tracks laid with the heaviest of steel rails in the most substantial manner, and when you are sleeping or lounging around in one of their superb Wagner cars, and flying along at the rate of nearly a mile a minute, as some of their fast expresses do, you will hardly realize that you are moving, so excellent is the permanent way. A short time ago a special train made the run from New York to Buffalo at the rate of a mile a minute the entire distance.

MILLIONS FOR LEVEES.

Levee contracts to the amount of $1,814,572, were let out last year by Wm. Starling, chief engineer of the board of Mississippi levee commissioners. Mrs. Starling visited Holland last year in the interest of the board and carefully examined the river-dyke system of that country. His report will be submitted to the American Society of Civil Engineers in the form of a paper.
